Dedication

From our school he's gone away
But in our minds he's here to stay.
We remember him for his friendly smile, his cheerfulness, his friendship. We remember him for the good times we shared. We hold him in our memory both as a classmate and more importantly as a friend. In our small way, as an expression of the love and appreciation we have for him, we respectfully dedicate Sagittarius 1971 to the memory of a friend - David Morgan.

Echoes of laughter and the sound of typewriters could be heard from the journalism room this year as the Journalism Department of Tell City High School had a very busy year. The classes sponsored the publication of the school newspaper, "The Marksman." The students did all the writing, layout, and paste-up for the bi-weekly publication. Also the students worked many long hours during and after school to produce the "1971 Sagittarius."

Editor Dave Richard and Assistant Editor Nick Schnieder work on the paste-up for "The Marksman."

Sue Trumbo and Debbie Litherland learn how to crop pictures for the yearbook.

ATHLETICS

Gridders End Successful Campaign

The "70" football season proved to be a fantastic year for the Marksmen grid squad. They ended the year with a record of 9-1, completely shutting out four of their opponents. These six members were chosen for the all conference team: Steve Lochmueller, tackle; Bill Coultas, guard; Tom Polster, linebacker; Junie Bryant, end; Rick Alvey, fullback; Mike Smith, quarterback. Rick was also named the most valuable player in the SIAC "B" division.

Tell City's defensive team is quick on the draw as this Castle Knight does not have a chance against Dale Sprinkle, Steve Lochmueller, and Rick Alvey.

With 9-1 Record

Refs have a tough time too.

Sometimes things just don't seem to fall into place! Pat Malone can't believe his eyes as what appears to be an easy catch slips through his fingers.

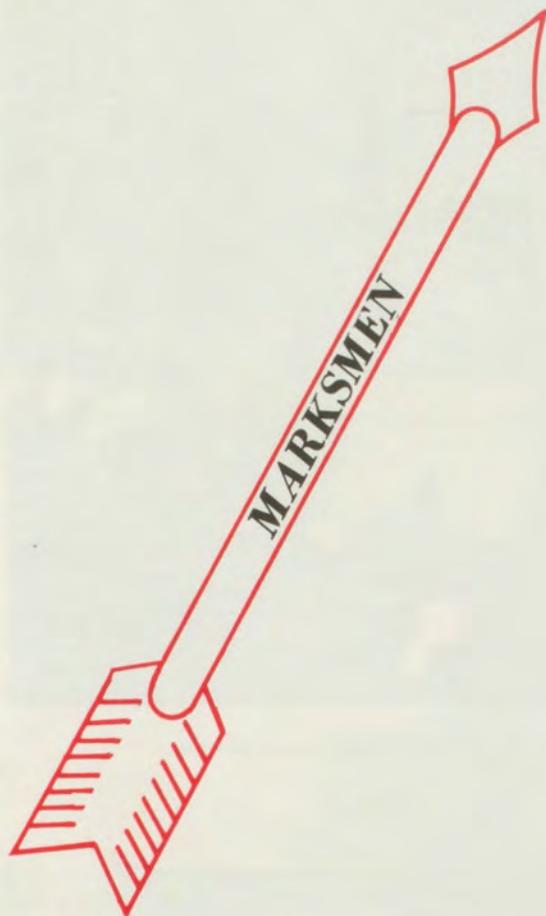

LEFT: Gang tackling is the name of the game as the Marksmen haul down a Castle Knight.

Final Poll Shows Tell City Is

Gridmen attention focuses on the field as an exciting play develops.

"Come on, I'll get you!" this defensive player seems to be saying to Joe Hagedorn, Tell City's man with the ball.

"You'll never catch me," seems to be the thought of Polster as he heads for a touchdown.

Marksmen Close Year With 17-3

The Marksmen met many opponents who challenged their assumptions and intended to wreck their victory boat. They worked hard to overcome their own tendency to withdraw when hurt, and bounced back to many hard-won rewards.

The team again has had a winning season as they closed the regular season of play with a record of 17-3. Led by 6'7" Steve Lochmueller and senior starters Rick Alvey and Mike Smith, Tell City had only three losses to North, Jasper, and South Spencer.

Alvey is all alone as he lays one in for Tell City.

T.C. Goes to Semi-State

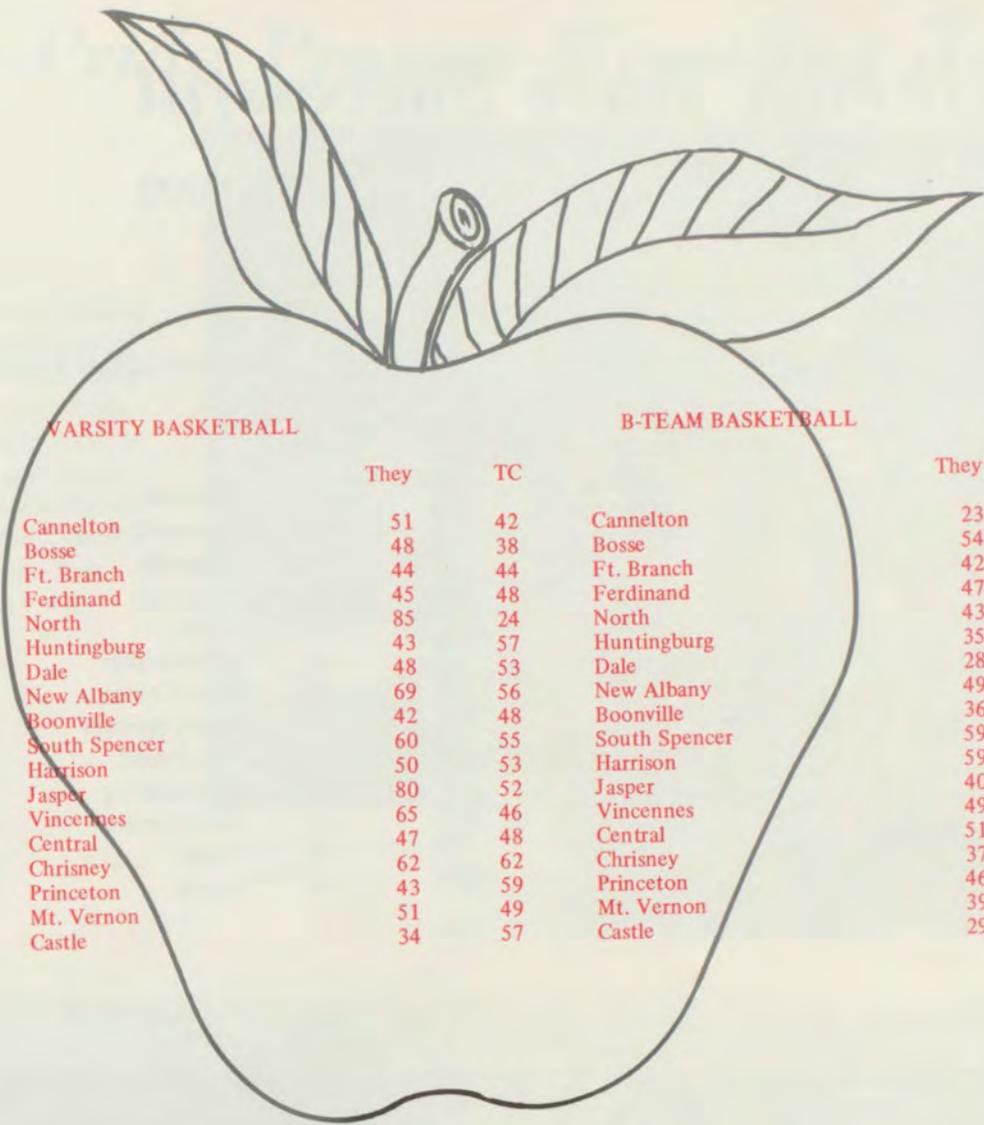

For the first time in 10 years, Tell City advanced to the Evansville semi-state by winning the Boonville Sectional and the Evansville Regional. The Marksmen overcame Princeton in the afternoon game of the regional by a score of 73-48. They took the Reitz Panthers easily in the night game with a score of 74-54, to win the championship.

The following week the Marksmen again traveled to Evansville for a bout with Loogootee in the Semi-State. In an exciting contest, which wasn't decided until the final seconds, the Marksmen fell to the Lions by a heartbreaking 3 point margin.

Steve Lochmueller demonstrates his devastating power at the board as this opponent tries hard, but not hard enough.

Four Years and Graduation

Charlie Bryant prepares to lead the class to their seats at the Baccalaureate ceremony.

BELOW: The graduating class of 1971 first appeared in their caps and gowns at the Baccalaureate ceremony on May 23.

Complete a Life at TCHS

Mr. Thrasher lines up the graduates-to-be for the graduating exercises.

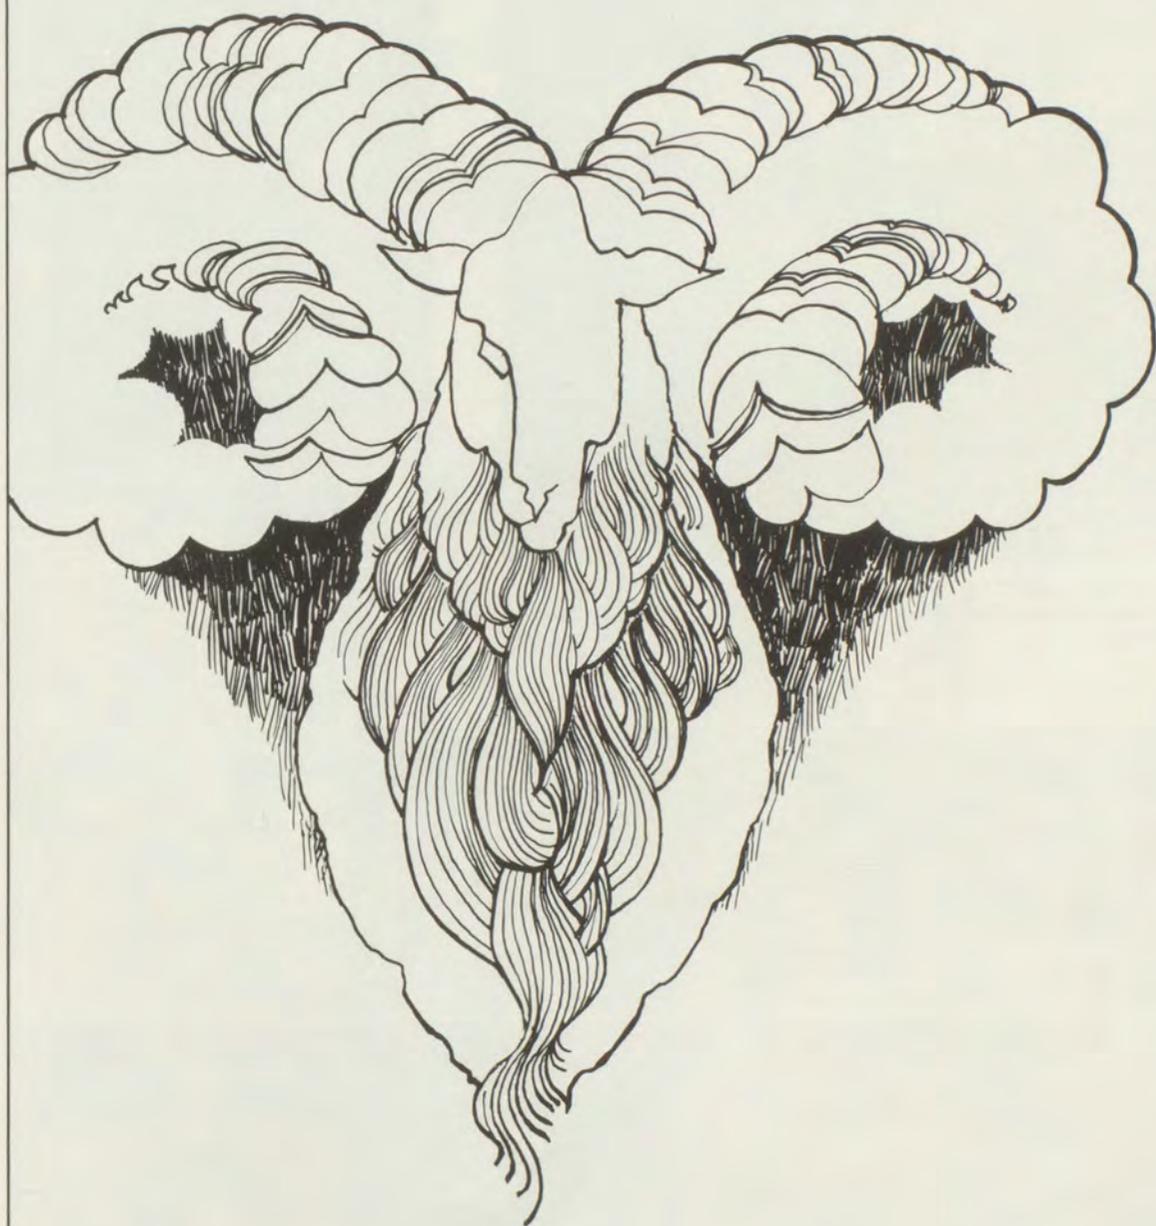

The Tell City High School Choir, under the direction of Mr. Ed Gorman, performed two numbers, "The Crusader's Hymn" and "The Halls of Ivy" at Baccalaureate ceremonies.

As we pass through these doors for the last time, we leave the days of our high school and pass into the world of adulthood. But, even though we are leaving, we take with us memories of the friends and laughter of these days. To the Class of 1971 – Congratulations and good luck!

1971 was a memorable year of self-realization and excitement! If you take time for honest introspection, the result will be a freer, more mature you.

The "Sagittarius" staff would like to thank the faculty and students for their cooperation in making this year-book possible.

THE END
