In Appreciation

Mrs. Mildred Hein

Her job is one of little praise; her position one of little recognition, but her cheerfulness and friendly disposition have brightened the daily routine of the Tell City High School principal's office for nine years. With 37 years of secretarial experience, she has managed to keep up with the mountains of work involved in her position. She has met with a smile the flow of demanding students and faculty coming through the office. Therefore, to express our long-delayed appreciation, we dedicate the 1972 Sagittarius to Mrs. Mildred Hein.

The Beginning . . .

September is the beginning of a new school year. For freshmen, it is the beginning of new dimensions of education and of life.

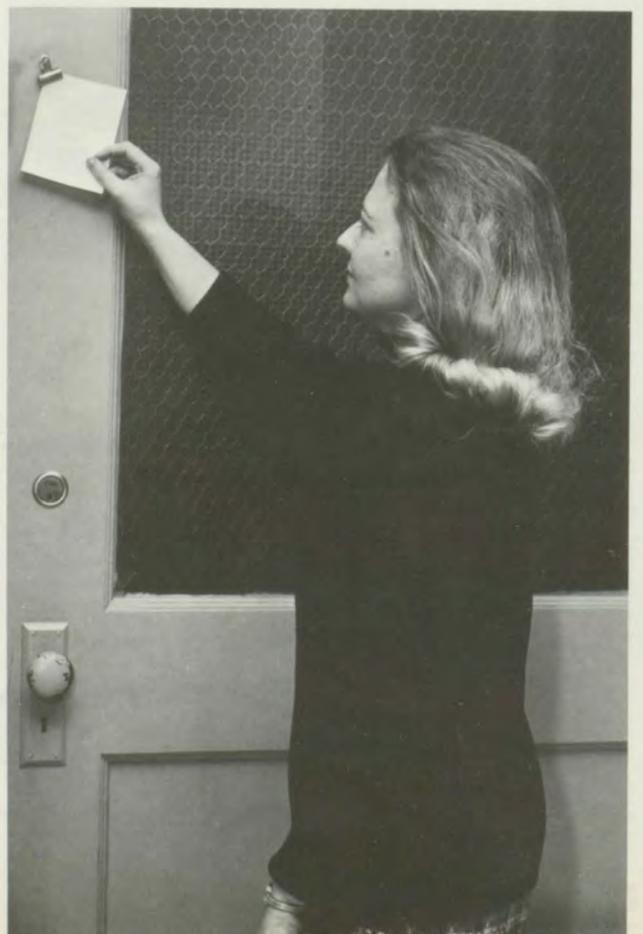

Dawn brings the beginning of another school day as 853 students arrive, books in hand, to learn, to grow, and to prepare themselves for the life ahead.

Yes, in many ways, this is just the beginning . . .

. . . of Books and Class Routines,

Included in the daily class routines are hurrying to beat the tardy bell and posting a list of absentees.

Mental and Physical Development, . . .

. . . Marksman Spirit,

Friendships and Togetherness.

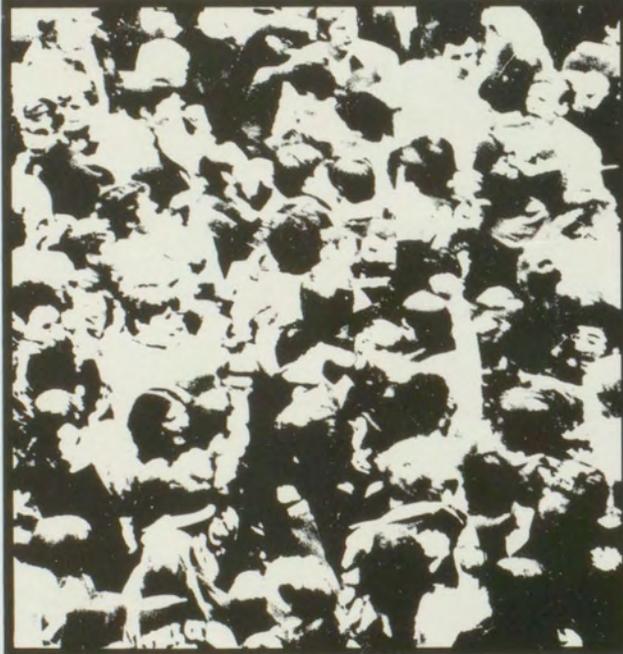

We've only just begun . . .

As the river is only now beginning a new course along old paths laid by streams of the past, so are we beginning a new journey down a path traveled by many before us . . . sharing horizons that are new to us . . . together.

Provide Journalistic Experience

Interviews with school personnel and students, selling ads, writing and typing stories, constructing layouts, pasting up at the News Office, writing headlines, and meeting deadlines were all a part of the complex process of producing 14 bi-weekly issues of the 1971-72 "Marksman." Several articles from "The Marksman" were reprinted in the "Student Press Bulletin," a national publication of selected high school articles.

The 1971-72 Sagittarius staff put in many hours after school and during study halls to produce the yearbook.

Last year's yearbook and two issues of the paper were entered in competition at the University of Evansville's annual high school Journalism Day. The 1971 Sagittarius received honorable mention for outstanding photography.

Government Advocates Involvement

Involvement is the key word in describing the 1971-72 Student Council, the representative voice of the student body in governing affairs at TCHS. The Council kept the school bustling with such things as convocation programs which included Ream's the Magician, Caldwell's Second Session, and a Fitness through Rhythmics program. The organization also staged a 3 day anti-drug campaign featuring the visit of 4 ex-addicts from Matrox in Lexington, Ky.

They initiated a homecoming lawn display contest, in which the Seniors took first place. Under the direction of their sponsor, Mr. Stenftenagel, they continued the annual events such as a used book sale, athlete's parents' recognition nights, Hoopla magazine sale, homecoming queen crownings, and cheerleader elections.

Students listen to ex-drug addicts from Lexington, Kentucky as they tell of their personal experiences with drugs.

Continues Winning Tradition

In 1972 the Tell City Symphonic and Marching Bands kept up the Marksman tradition of quality performance and high ratings. The marching Championship band received a 1st division rating at the Indiana State marching Contest. One of the highlights of the year was competing in the Six-Flags-Over-Mid-America Contest in St. Louis May 12-14.

Besides preparing for the many annual contests, the band presented half time shows at home football games and Christmas and spring concerts for the public.

Musical Talent Displayed at

The TCHS Auditorium became the setting of portions of "The Lawrence Welk Show," "Dragnet," and "Laugh In" as students did take-offs of these programs at the variety show sponsored annually by the music department.

Jim Mayfield, impersonating Lawrence Welk, led the chorus in some lip singing in one comedy section of the program.

Debby Davis represented the chorus in a "Laugh In" skit. With lollipop in hand, Debby sang a comedy version of "These are my Favorite Things."

The Escapades of Sound provided added variety with their barbershop arrangements. A combo consisting of Julie Fenn, David Spicer, Steve York and Sara Maier presented such contemporary numbers as "Rainy Days and Mondays" and "We've Only Just Begun," with Julie as vocal soloist.

The stage band was also featured rounding out the variety of the 1972 Tell Town Capers.

Traditional Tell Town Capers

"The Impossible Dream — To Reach

Blue and silver decorations, along with multi-colored flowers created a romantic atmosphere for the 1972 prom theme, "The Impossible Dream." The walls were navy blue with silver stars. Balloons and streamers added a festive touch to the National Guard Armory.

A vine-covered arch romanticized the entrance. To the right of the entrance was a wishing well of wood where couples could have their pictures taken. A white picket fence where huge paper flowers grew adorned the front of the section for the band, Mongoose.

The decorations were given a finishing touch with a beautiful fountain in the center of the room where live goldfish darted among the rocks.

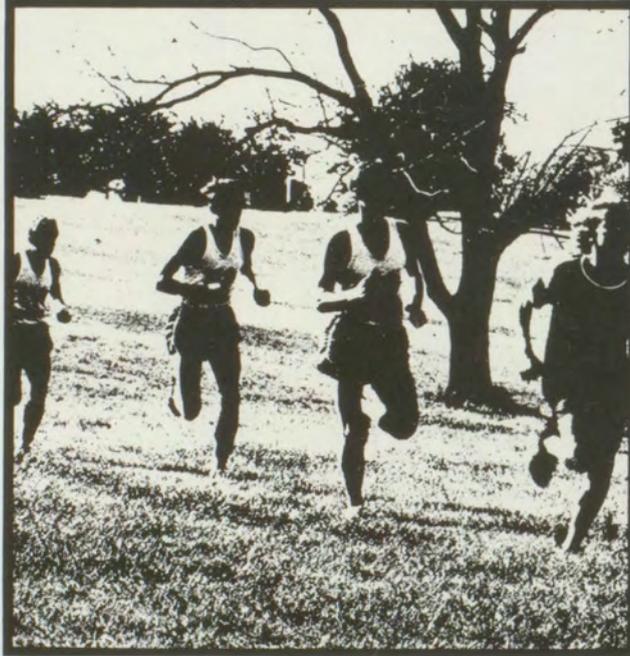

An array of balloons cascaded from the ceiling as the prom queen, Paula Schlundt, was crowned. Paula's senior attendants were Cheryl Traphagen, Sarah Maier, and Pat Roos. Junior attendants were Betsy Brakora, Terri Davis, and Connie Kleeman.

Regain SIAC Championship

The Marksmen reclaimed the SIAC B-division Championship by compiling an 8-0 record in conference play after losing the title to Jasper in the '70-71 campaign.

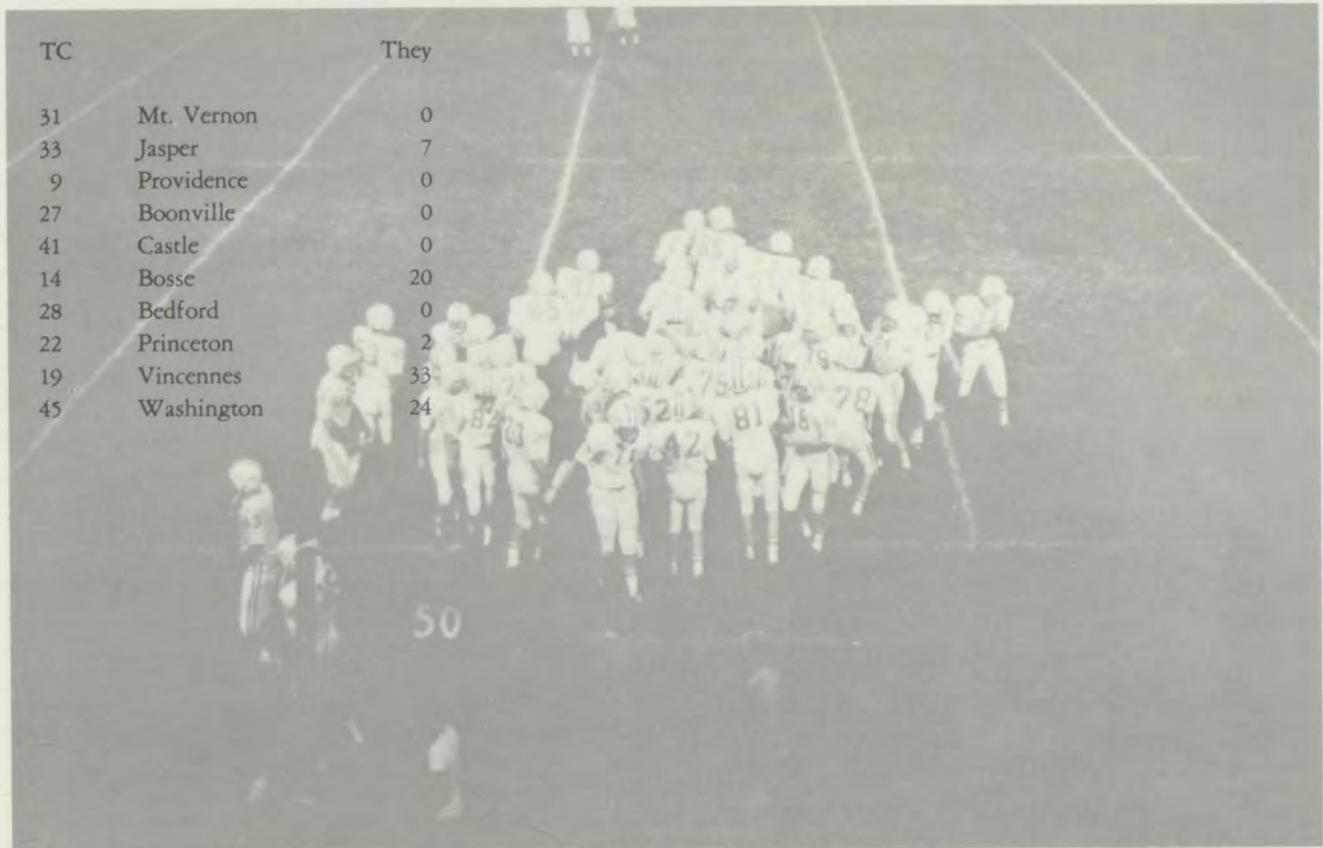

Under the guidance of head coach Joe Talley, the gridders closed the regular season with an 8-2 record with losses to Vincennes and Bosse.

Five opponents failed to score against the Marksmen and only Bosse managed to put points on the scoreboard at Legion Field, spoiling the homecoming game.

The highly regarded Marksmen weren't without problems as injuries plagued the team. Seniors Chris Kleeman and Steve Coyle were sidelined with injuries early in the season.

Highly Rated Marksmen

Tell City's 1971-72 basketball team will be remembered as one of the outstanding teams in the south.

Finishing the season with a 21-4 win-loss record, the Marksmen were overpowered by only three teams, New Albany, Princeton, and Vincennes twice.

The Marksmen won their first ten games of the season. These included victories in the Holiday Tourney and a victory over Mt. Vernon in an overtime.

Coach Bob Lochmueller said he was very pleased with the basketball season. "This team exceeded all expectation."

The highlights of the campaign, according to Coach Lochmueller, were winning the sectional over South Spencer after being down 16 points in the second quarter and defeating Mt. Vernon for the second time by 2 points. These were Mt. Vernon's only defeats of the season.

The coach added that he thought the Marksmen were a very exciting team to watch and that as a team the shooting was outstanding.

"Lucky TC — Three in a Row"

After Tell City won the Boonville sectional for the third straight year, many of our competitors attributed our success to just "luck." But according to Coach Bob Lochmueller, "Tradition and pride had a great deal to do with our play in the sectional tourney. I feel like our team played like true champions."

Tell City tromped Tecumseh 70-59, and then Dale with a final score of 77-63. In the final game against the South Spencer Rebels, Tell City pulled up to a final score of 72-70 after being down 16 points in the second quarter.

At the regional, played at Robert's Municipal Stadium in Evansville, Tell City overcame Mt. Vernon, 73-71. Vincennes Alices beat the Marksmen in the final game with a score of 74-57.

Matmen Capture First Trophy

Tell City's varsity wrestling team, under the supervision of head coach Murray Pride, finished the season with a 5-6-1 record. The reserve team, coached by Mr. Byrd, ended with a record of 7 wins and 4 losses.

The varsity team captured first place in the Washington Invitational Tourney, thus placing Tell City's first wrestling trophy in the trophy case.

Tell City finished in second place in the sectional at Jasper, thus qualifying six boys for the regional competition at Bloomington. This was the first time Tell City has ever qualified anyone for the regional.

In the sectional, Tell City had three boys to capture their weight class. In the regional, Dale Sprinkle placed second and Dan Simon finished third.

 And sorry I cannot travel both
 And be one traveler, long I stand
 And look down one as far as I can
 To where it bends in the undergrowth —
