DEDICATION

To DR. HARGIS BUSH. IN APPRECIATION OF HIS MANY HOURS OF UNSELFISH SERVICE GIVEN TO THE ATHLETES OF THE CANNELTON HIGH SCHOOL DURING THE YEARS HE HAS SERVED THE PEOPLE OF CANNELTON, WE, THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-TWO, RESPECTFULLY DEDICATE THIS NOTLENNAC.

HARRY R. DAVIDSON, Superintendent of Schools
A.B., Indiana Central College, 1928; M.S., Indiana University, 1937.

SENIORS OF 1942, you are leaving Cannelton High School at one of the most critical, but also one of the most interesting, periods in the history of civilization. Part of your education has been the study of the rise and fall of forms of government in the past. They have each made their contribution, good or bad, to the history of man. The supreme test of a government was its ability to survive in battle.

We have learned to love our democratic way of life and rightly believe it is the way the Greatest Teacher of all taught that man should live. That way of life is now faced with a struggle to the finish with a form of government that exists only for itself and not for the benefit of those living under it. You will each have an important role in this great conflict, some in active service at the front and others keeping the wheels rolling here at home. May we therefore not complain but be grateful for the honor of a difficult task in a difficult day.

Your teachers and school officials extend "Best Wishes" as you leave for your important role.

HARRY R. DAVIDSON, Superintendent.

CLASS SONG

"Forty-two" Will Never Die
Tune: "Remember Pearl Harbor"

Let's remember our school days
As we go to face the world,
All our fun and our quarrels
On our shoulders then were hurled;
When we're laughing and joking,
Thinking of the days gone by,
We'll remember our classmates,
"Forty-two" will never die.

Let's remember our teachers
Though at times they thought we'd flunk.
We'll remember our lockers,
That were always filled with junk.
We had fun in our school days,
And we hate to say goodbye,
We will always remember,
"Forty-two" will never die.

Class Motto: "Tonight We Launch, Where Shall We Anchor."

ON THE DIAMOND

After an absence of one year, Cannelton again organized a Baseball team for the spring of 1942. When the Notlennac went to press, the schedule had not as yet been completed.

With Liberty and Justice for All

NOTLENNAC STAFF

This year marks the sixth Notlennac to be edited by a Cannelton High School staff. Annually, the senior class elects the members of the staff, who work on the yearbook as an extra-curricular activity.

This year, group photography was done by Mr. Groves. Faculty sponsor of the yearbook is Miss Mary Lou Beck.

The staff wishes to thank advertisers, patrons, and all others who helped in making the 1942 Notlennac a success.

CANNELTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Cannelton's Class "C" band has for the past eight years taken top honors at the district contest which is held every spring. Mr. Don Marketto, head of the Music Department, is director of the band. The group has also placed in the first division in the state meet the past three years. Many of the band members participate annually in the state solo and ensemble contest and carry off high honors.

HI-LIFE STAFF

Not in picture: Ethel Joe Bruner, circulation manager.

Starting January 22, 1926, the first C. H. S. school newspaper, the Broadcaster, was published. In October, 1934, this paper was changed to the Hi-Life, and its size was increased. In November of that same year, the paper was enlarged to its present size.

Edited bi-weekly by a staff of seniors and juniors, the Hi-Life is a four page, five-column printed newspaper. Material for the paper is student-written. The publication is supported by community advertising and distributed free to all students of the upper seven grades of the school system.

Staff delegates attend the convention of the Indiana High School Press Association each year. Each spring outstanding staff members become members of Quill and Scroll. Miss Mary Lou Beck is faculty sponsor of the Hi-Life.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the National Honor Society is based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Candidates must be juniors or seniors who have spent at least one year in Cannelton High School and have maintained a scholastic average of 89 per cent. Sophomores are eligible for probationary membership. There are now six seniors and four juniors in the Cannelton Chapter. Mr. Neff is the sponsor.

Front Row: Georgia Lee Scull, Helen Thorn, Joy Scull, Doris Ball, Jeanie May, Alice Livers.

Not in picture: Bobby Stamp.

Marie Northenor, Sarah Jean Aldridge, Georgia Lee Scull, Alice Livers, Jeanie May.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Each spring outstanding students of the Hi-Life and Notlennac staffs are elected to membership in Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. To be eligible for membership, a student must be a senior or junior in the upper scholastic third of his class for the current year; he must meet the general requirements of leadership and character, in addition to having samples of his journalistic work approved by the National headquarters of the society. Miss Mary Lou Beck is sponsor of the Cannelton Chapter.

STUDENT COUNCIL

For the first time this year, a Student Council, composed of the presidents of the six classes as charter members, was organized. The group meets weekly, with Mr. Neff as faculty advisor.

Among activities sponsored by this group for the school year 1941-42 were the All-School Carnival and the All-School Convocation; they chose the lyceum presentations and movies for this year and for next; they helped with the hand-book, and they also conducted the defense drive for waste materials.

OF THE CANNELTON, INDIANA, BOYS
WHO SERVED IN THE
1917 . . . WORLD WAR . . . 1918

At the present time, when we are involved in World War II, it seems only fitting that we recall to mind the following men, who served their country during the first World War. Their names are also reproduced on the photograph, above, of the American Legion plaque which hangs in the main corridor of the high school:
