Friendship and Togetherness

1975-76 proved to be just another year in one respect; friendships were formed, friendships were strengthened, friendships were broken. When students from three schools are brought together for the first time everyone finds or loses friends.

Throughout the year, nearly all of us experienced the joy of the discovering a new friend.

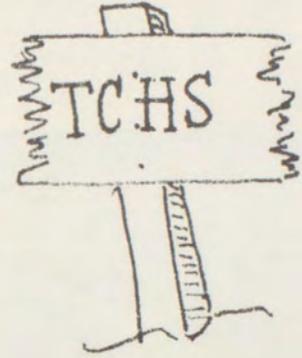

The halls of TCHS often resembled a market square as students engaged in fund-raising activities for their organization.

Crackers, cokes, buttons, stickers, fruit, posters, cups, glasses, candy and even door mats were a few of the items merchandised by students.

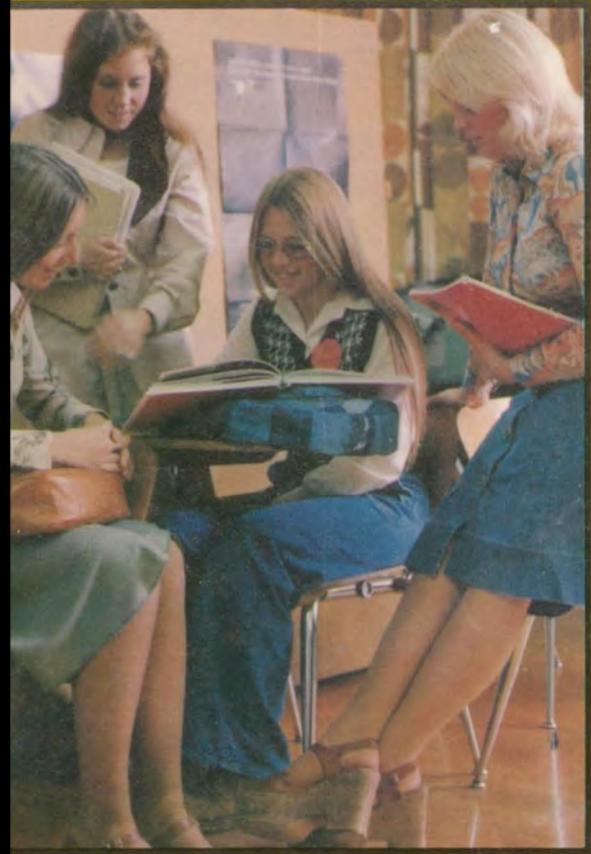

Hundreds of dollars passed through the buildings as the students participated in traditional buying campaigns.

Students bought jackets, rings, invitations, lunch tickets, school photos, class keys, paperback books and a multitude of other products.

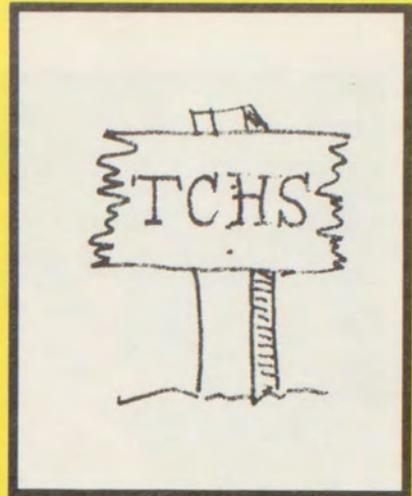

Buying and Selling

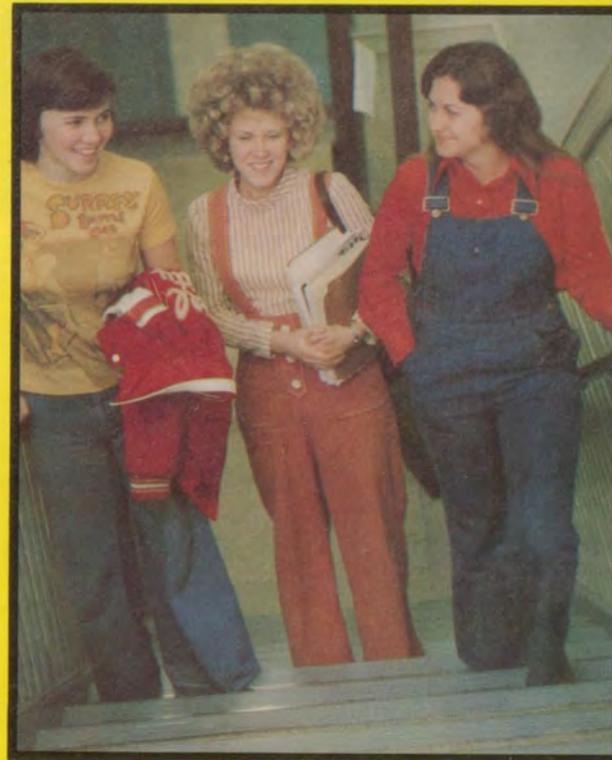

With most of the student body decked out in overalls and faded blue jeans, it was sometimes unclear whether we were attending school or an informal get-together. This was the year of the casual look. Huge purses, crazy T-shirts, and earth shoes were "in-things."

Most students enjoyed a year of comfortable, if not especially attractive attire. Fashions were just another Sign of the Times.

Fashions

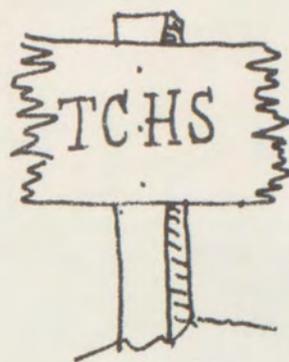

School spirit often became the elusive spirit as TCHS experienced an up and down year in enthusiasm.

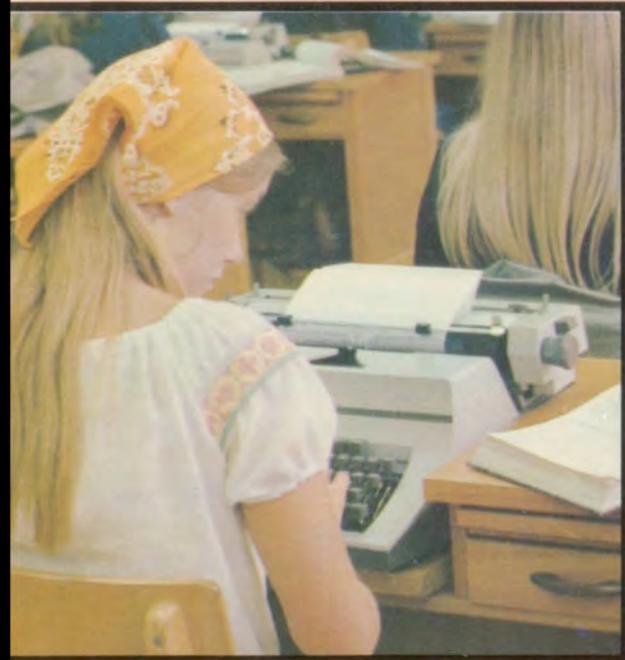

Pep sessions were made optional after students complained. However, most students continued to attend and vocalize their spirit.

Class pyramids, the spirit jug, and dress-up days were sponsored to promote enthusiasm.

School Spirit

Another year of learning experience is behind us. Even though the same things were taught to everyone in each class, all of us learned something different. Each one of us would have a different story to relate about our past four years of education.

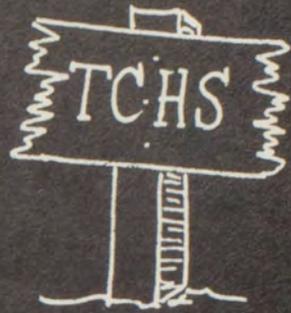

Quadratic equations in algebra may be long forgotten, infinitives may split and participles dangle with time, but all of us will remember those four years in one form or another. Learning, like everything else, was just another Sign of the Times.

Teacher of the Year

Seniors Select Buckman

Whether working on graduation or teaching English class, Mrs. Sharon Buckman is a dedicated teacher who is always ready to listen to her students.

The senior class selected Mrs. Buckman as the Teacher of the Year. She was chosen from all teachers who had been at TCHS for at least four years.

Mrs. Buckman received her Bachelor's degree in Spanish from Brescia College and attended school two nights a week last winter to work for her Master's in Counselor of Education.

Mrs. Buckman taught at Owensboro Catholic for one year before coming to Tell City where she has taught four years.

She has been senior sponsor for four years, and was ski club sponsor as well as head of girls' intramurals for two years. She is also active in the Classroom Teachers Association and the League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Buckman's hobbies are gardening, reading and camping, but most of all she enjoys teaching and being with young people.

She and her husband Lark have one son, Chad, who is four years old.

Two Long-Term Administrators Retire

The careers of two Tell City High School administrators came to a close with the end of the 1975-76 school year.

Superintendent Charles Grady Swadley retired after 18 years as superintendent of the Tell City - Troy Township School Corporation. Swadley had been in the field of education for over 42 years.

Hugh Riley Thrasher ended a 22-year career as principal of Tell City High with his retirement at the close of the school term. Before serving as principal, Thrasher taught Physical Education, Social Studies, and coached basketball, football, and track.

Both retirements became effective July 1.

Graduation . . .

Not the end, but the beginning

Sponsored by MINTO'S MARKET

After 12 years of school, 206 seniors from the class of 1976 participated in graduation ceremonies May 16, 1976 at 2:00 p.m.

A few changes were made during the preparation for the service. The event was originally scheduled at Legion Field, but due to repairs at the field, the ceremony was changed to the high school lawn. However, rain caused commencement to be moved to the gymnasium.

"Learn from Yesterday, Live for Today, Hope for Tomorrow" was chosen as the class motto. The class flower was the rose and red and white were the colors. Each class member wore a red, white and blue pendant as a symbol of the bicentennial year.

The welcoming address was given by class president Helen Paulin. Valedictorian and Salutatorian speeches were delivered by Marcia Beatty and Marty DuPre. The three parts of the class motto were explained by Karen Thomas, John Simpson and Jo Lynn Schaeffer. Sherry Hinton spoke on the Bicentennial.

Several scholarships were presented. Students winning the Tell City National Band Mangus Kreisle Award were Debbie Gordon, $1,000.00 and Sherry Hinton $500.00. The Tri-Kappa award of $400 went to Ron Hoffman. Tell City Federal Savings and Loan scholarships of $150 went to Jo Lynn Schaeffer and John Simpson. Tim Jarboe received the Bob Cummings Memorial of $500.

Diplomas were presented to the graduates by Mr. Thrasher and Mr. Swadley.

Student Council again provided such activities as Parents' Recognition Nights, homecoming attractions, and lawn displays.

Student Council members served as band festival guides, sponsored cheerleader elections, helped with plans for the outdoor sign, formed the Pep Session Committee, gave a donation to the Council of Agencies, and promoted other such school activities.

The members of the Student Council Advisory Council include seniors; Marcia Beatty, Sherry Hinton, and Karen Dixon, juniors; Jackie Howerton, Gail Bissler, and Joe Varner, sophomores; Shannon Duchenois, Melitta Kessner, and Annette Parker.

Student Council again sponsored several convocations for the 1975-1976 school year. They sponsored musical convocations by "Pendulum," "Crimson Bridge," and the Oakland City College Choir. Ed Schettler demonstrated different positions and types of yoga, and Bob Reams, hypnotist and magician, presented an afternoon and evening performance. National Honor Society again sponsored their annual government day, and a convocation was staged to give the students a view of the candidates, and was a chance for the students involved to express their platforms. All of the above activities helped to break the monotony of classes, while exposing the students to educational and entertaining programs as well.

Three One-Act Plays Conducted by Student Directors

Three student-directed one-act plays were presented December 4 by the Drama Department. Ed Collingnon, Tim Jarboe, and Jennifer Holman, the student directors, were assisted by Mrs. Lynn Heflick in organizing and planning the plays.

Murray Schisgal's "The Tiger," directed by Ed, was about an intelligent man attempting to get revenge on society by kidnapping a middle-aged housewife. John Simpson played the part of Ben, the kidnapper while Laura McIntire played Gloria.

Tim Jarboe chose Howard Buermann's comedy "Quiet Please." The play builds its setting around two feuding brothers, Jeff and Judd, who are suddenly interrupted by a pushy woman named Catherine. Tom Stenftenagel played Jeff, Butch McClintock, Judd; and Annette Lautner, Catherine.

Edgar Allen Poe's horror, "The Tell Tale Heart," was selected by Jennifer Holman. Joe Wiram played Jess Stark, the murderer of Nathan Zolka. Zolka was played by Robert Bryant.

Other members of the cast were Jennifer Quackenbush playing Jess Stark's wife, Lorna, and Pat McGee as Master Brannaman, a friend of Nathan Zolka. Melitta Kessner and Karen Dixon were Kristin and Metti Holum, two nieces of Zolka.

4th Consecutive Drama Production

"Don't Drink the Water," a 2-act play by Woody Allen, was presented by the Drama Department. Mrs. Heflick was the director with Sandy Stoen as student director and Jeff Kast as stage manager.

The setting was an American Embassy behind the Iron Curtain. Walter and Marion Hollander, and their daughter, Susan, played by Ed Collignon, Annette Lautner and Brooks Bell are chased by Communist police in the embassy.

While at the embassy, Susan falls in love with the bumbling son of the American ambassador, Axel Magee, played by Joe Wiram.

The ambassador, James F. Magee, portrayed by John Simpson, is suddenly sent away on business and leaves his son in charge. Axel takes the delicate situation of the Hollanders and the Communist government in hand and turns it into a worse one.

Father Drobney, played by Tim Jarboe, is also a refugee in the embassy. Other characters included Gene McAfee as Kilroy, the over-anxious assistant of the ambassador; and Tom Stenftenagel as Krojack, head of the police.

Also Ms. Burns, the Sultan of Bashir, his wife, Kasnar, Countess Bordoni, and the chef were played by Melitta Kessner, Rick Etienne, Cheryl Hawkins, Pat Jarboe, Joanie Etensohn and Robert Bryant.

The French Club began the school year by electing club officers. The club chose Craig Connor for president; Karen Thomas, vice-president; Kevin Voges, secretary-treasurer; and Karen Alvey, program-committee chairperson. Mrs. Mary Ann Horn was the club sponsor.

At their parties the club ate French delicacies, played games, and performed skits in French. Several students planned a trip to Paris during the summer. At the end of the year, the French underclassmen dedicated a skit in French to the seniors.

The club had several parties throughout the year. During their meetings, the club discussed the possibilities of making a spring trip.

A committee comprised of Mr. Hintzen, club sponsor; Mr. Howard Brenner, president of Tell City National Bank; and Sherry Hinton and Gene McAfee, club members, considered possibilities of creating an exchange system between Tell City and a "sister city" in Switzerland.

During the school year, the Spanish Club members elected Keith Gebhard as president with the exchange student, Paulina Jacome being honorary president. The vice-president was Tom Kinningham; Beth Everly, secretary-treasurer; and Elliott Johnston program-committee chairman. Mrs. Beverly Maier was the club's sponsor.

Besides the many parties and skits the club enjoyed during the year, some members took a trip to Mexico City, during the first week in June. The members raised money for the trip by a camera raffle and conducting a yard sale. In March, the club traveled to the University of Evansville to see the play, MAN OF LA MANCHA.

The Bowling Club began its twenty-fifth year in October. This is the oldest existing club at TCHS. The club met at Blum's Lane every Sunday at 12:30.

At the beginning of the year, there were ten teams. Each team had five members with one or two substitutes. There were thirty different games played by each team, with trophies given to the best teams and individuals.

The captains were Richard Moore, Elliott Johnston, Mark Faulkenberg, Neil May, Roger Terry, Marcie Phillips, Keith Kiplinger and Angie Parker.

Richard Moore's team had the best record for wins during the year, Elliott Johnston scored the highest single game for the boys having 214. Jeff Evrard had the highest series, 549 for the boys while Teresa Snyder scored the highest girls series, 492.

Ski Club Journeys to Shanty Creek

Shanty Creek located at Bellaire, Michigan, was the destination of the 1976 Ski Club. Sixty of the 102 members departed January 1, for a three day trip of snow skiing, ice skating, snowmobiling and unbelievably enough, swimming.

The source of funds for this and other activities comes from candy drives conducted regularly.

The club officers were Mary Connor, president; Stacy Malone, vice-president; and Vicki Brinksneider, treasurer. Mr. Louden was the sponsor.

Bums Help Out . . .

Pep Block Provides Added School Spirit

The Pep Block again provided enthusiastic yells that fired the school spirit. Club members wore red and white capes to show their team support. Kathy Alvey was the club president and Mrs. Buxton served as sponsor.

Also, the Bleacher Bums were rebuilt and proved to be an important asset. Their success was due mainly to student participation. The "bums" were led by Joe Gogel who performed as their "cheerleader."

Intramurals

Girl's intramurals were held Tuesday evenings in the auditorium. Mrs. Lynn Heflick was the director of the program. They chose various names for their teams, such as; Boozer Bunch, Born Losers, Oddballs, Fanny's Gang, Busch Broads, Budweiser Broads, Buster Bunch, Volbaskets, and T.C. Bombers.

Sunday afternoons in St. Paul's gymnasium were the setting of the boy's intramurals. Teams were sponsored by local businesses. Several members of the senior class organized the teams.

Business Lab Teaches Secretarial Skills

Business and Office Intensive Laboratory is the full name of the new course that was added to the TCHS curriculum during the past school year. The primary purpose of the course, which was initiated by the three local school boards, is to prepare students, mainly girls, for employment in commercial business firms.

The class was held for two hours daily at Cannelton High School and was fully accredited. The first part of the course lasted 12 weeks and then each student began working at her own pace. Each girl worked at an established station creating an informal classroom atmosphere.

Mrs. Virginia Davis is the instructor for the course.

Marksman Band Finishes Year Undefeated

The marching band began its highly successful year by first defeating rivals Jasper and Vincennes to win the coveted Grand Sweepstakes trophy at Huntingburg. This was the second sweepstakes trophy for the seniors, who won the award in 1972.

Vincennes Lincoln captured top honors at the 3rd annual Tell City Marching Invitational held in October in the already well-known TC festival.

The band took first place honors in parade competition, field show, and best overall band at the first annual Hancock County Marching Invitational.

After area parades, football games, and a Christmas concert, band members brought home the highest number of medals at the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Southridge High School. Those with firsts in Group I travelled to the State Solo and Ensemble Contest, with several groups and soloists receiving Division I ratings.

Juniors

On August 29, 1975, 226 juniors entered the halls of Tell City High School for the third, and next to last time.

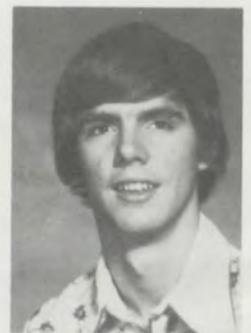

Leah Coultas was elected president of the class, with Gail Rissler serving as vice-president. Barbara Hauser fulfilled the office of secretary, while Becky Claise acted as treasurer.

Mr. Day and Mr. Byrd were chosen by the class of '77 as their sponsors for the year.

The highlight of the 75-76 school terms, as in years past, was the Junior-Senior Prom. The profits from the magazine drive held in the fall of '75 went to pay for the formal affair.

Tell City. The start of a beautiful relationship.

When you collect our Tell City Young Republic, you can just keep adding. Year after year.

It's all open stock. All decorator coordinated to go together. So the furniture you buy today will mix beautifully with the pieces you add ten years from now.

Your choice is tremendous. We have many different dining tables, chairs, hutches, serving pieces. Plus matching living room and bedroom furniture, lamps and accessories.

Wear isn't really a problem either. The rugged hard rock maple is built to last a lifetime, even for families with children.

Come see Tell City. You and your children's children will be so proud of this handsome, nicely detailed furniture. And you'll save money by collecting, instead of replacing.
