In Appreciation

We, the class of 1953, wish to extend our greatest appreciation to Mr. Little, who has guided our steps in our four high school years. Without Mr. Little's guidance, our many undertakings could never have been brought to a successful conclusion.

Class Song

We will never meet again
In the hall of C. H. S.
In our hearts we will remain
United in our happiness.

We've long looked forward to the day
When we'd be marching up the aisle
Now that day is here at last
And we meet it with a smile.

Though it should break
Our hearts to know
Our time has come
But now we're glad to go.

We've been good friends
Through all the years
Since we first said, "Hello".

Since the first day that we met
We've had some quarrels and some spats
But we are all together now
Because the end has come at last.

As we bid farewell to our pals
We know we do not need to weep
For we will always have a horde
Of vivid memories to keep.

It was great fun
It's over now
We're ready to depart
Upon our way.

We'll say, "Goodbye"
But shed no tears
And this is what we'll say.

Class History

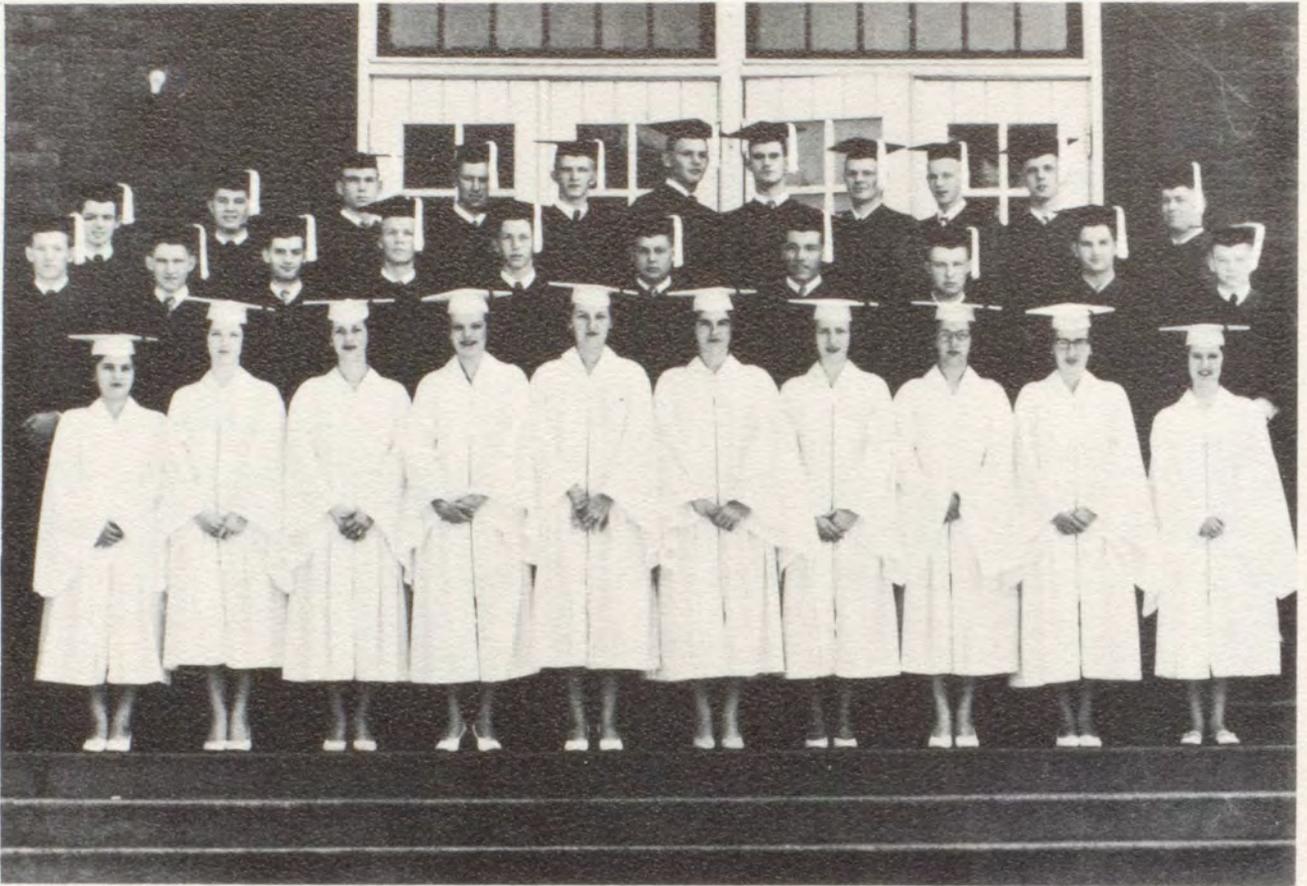

On Sept. 12, 1949, 56 "greenies" were enrolled in CHs. Many of these students came from Myers Grade School while the remainder were from Rome, Derby, Tobinsport, St. Michaels and Consolidated. At our first class meeting the following officers were elected: Pres. Jimmy Burden, Vice, Bill Posey, Sec. Joyce Franzman, Treas. Ann Forsaith, His. Augusta Walls. Our sponsors were Miss Mabel and Mr. Parks. Ann Forsaith and Norman Nugent were elected as our Student Council Representatives. Three outstanding awards were given. The scholastic award was given to Judy Cadwell, Activities to Ann Forsaith and athletic award to Dickie Meador. During our freshman year we chose our class flowers as the white carnation, our colors, blue and white and our class motto "To rest is not to conquer," which we have kept for our four years. Thus, we ended our days as "green" freshman and advanced to the "silly" soph. stage.

Our enrollment for the Sophomore year was lowered to 46 students. One of our classmates, Emmett Henning was killed over the summer mos. Our sponsors were Miss Mable and Coach Hafele. Our class officers were Pres. Charlie Moore, Vice. Betty Farquhar, Sec. Jeannine Huber, Treas. Ann Forsaith. Student council representatives were Joyce Franzman and Jim Steinsberger.

The Jolly Juniors entered the new school year with 37 students. This year we were host to the Sr. at the Jr. - Sr. Prom. The theme of our prom was "Moonlight and Roses." and was held at the Hoosier Heights Country Club with Dixie Davis and his orchestra. Augusta Walls was chosen by the Legion Auxilliary to be sent to Girl's State. Joyce Franzman was chosen as her alternate. The Legion chose Jim Millburn as their choice to go to Boy's State with Norman Schroeder as his alternate. Jim Millburn also became the proud possessor of the Kiwanis Award. Our sponsors were Midd Redmon and Mr. Etienne. Class officers were Charlie Moore, Pres. Judy Cadwell, vice, Ann Forsaith, Sec. Jim Millburn, Treas. Student Council rep. were Dave Chenault, Jim Steinsberger and Augusta Walls. Betty Jo Farquhar was crowned by popular votes as Football queen by Roy Maxey, captain.

After a well-earned vacation 33 dignified Seniors returned for the final year. Mrs. Vaughn and Coach Ramsey were chosen to be our class sponsors. Charlie Moore was elected pres. Judy Cadwell, vice, Ann Forsaith, Sec, and Jim Millburn, Treas. Student Council rep. were Jim Steinsberger, Dicie Meador, and Ramona Seibert. Ramona Seibert wrote our class song. Wanda McFarling was crowned 1952-53 football queen by popular votes. Dickie Meador, captain did the honors. Augusta Walls was crowned Basketball queen by captain, Norman Nugent. Larry Dawson and Judy Cadwell were crowned 1952-53 Prom King and Queen by Pres. Bill Northenor and Vice Threasa Payne. We went to St. Louis for three days with our class sponsors.

Will of the Class of 1953

- I, Billy Elishe Bell, will my ability to keep quiet and to mind my own business in class to Charles Ell and Jimmy Paulin.
- I, Charles Edward Bubenzer, will my good Senior English grades to Eric Whitehead. You will need them!
- I, Judy Cadwell, will my two years of art to Patsy Sinclair. Keep up the tradition, Pat.
- I, David Chenault, will my pool playing ability to Jimmie Powers, you lucky boy.
- I, Larry Dawson, will my way with women to Jimmie Powers.
- I, James Dixon, will my motto, "Why marry and make one miserable when you can stay single and keep them all happy", to my brother, Jackie. He'll need it.
- I, Betty Jo Farquhar, will my ability to get a Maxey to Lizzie Polk. Any of them but Roy, Lizzie.
- I, Ann Forsaith, will my spelling ability to Carol Rae Baker. Don't use it in any contests. You won't win!
- I, Joyce Franzman, will my ever-lasting freckles to Joyce Dutschke. Take good care of them, Joyce, as it took me a long time to get them.
- I, Ronnie Gaynor, will my ability to get all A's in shop to Billy Farquhar. Carry on Willie.
- I, Albert Harpe, will my way with the women to Joe Mogan.
- I, Jeannine Huber, will my ability to be satisfied with one boy to Janice York. Take care of it, it is a rare thing around this school.
- I, Duane Leaf, will my good behavior in shop class to Stanley Sutton.
- I, June Lyons, will my ability to lose Government books to anyone who could have such good luck.
- I, Joe McDaniel, have nothing to will.
- I, Wanda McFarling, will my Football Crown to Marilyn Hafele. Take good care of it, Marilyn.
- I, Dickie Meador, will my position on the football team to Lee Roy Rhodes.
- I, Jimmy Milburn, will my nickname, "Silent" to Pepsi Paulin. It fits him perfectly.
- I, Charlie Moore, will my ability to get one girl (and keep her) to Norman Lain. Sic'em boy!
- I, Norman Nugent, will my job at Snyder's to Jimmy Powers. Watch'em Jim!
- I, Wanda Payne, will my shortness to Theresa Payne. Take good care of it, Theresa, it has helped me a lot.
- I, Dena Mae Petrie, will my place as the first engaged girl in the senior class to Mary "Daisy" Sinclair. Good luck, Daisy.
- I, Raymond Raley, will my funny looks to Denny Hay.
- I, Squirt Rutherford, will my catching ability to Charles Ell.
- I, Allen "Jack" Schraner, will my seat in government class to Eric Whitehead.
- I, Linus "Wild Bill" Schraner, will my wavy hair to Denny Ramsey. I think he will take good care of it during basketball season.
- I, Norman Schroeder, will my bass horn to Billy "Piercy" Northenor.
- I, Ramona Seibert, will my accodian playing ability to Hilbert Seibert.
- I, David Shores, will my nickname, "Brute", to Willie Downs. I think its a purty name, myself.
- I, Le Roy Shore, will my way with the women to Robert Harpe. Keep up the good work.
- I, Jim "Swede" Steinsberger, will my short stubby hair to Stephen Hay. Don't ever let it grow out long, Steve.
- I, Russell Stith, will my clarinet to David Adams. Practice hard.
- I, Augusta Walls, will the basketball crown, that was willed to me in '51 to Dee Dee Zellers. Keep it going, Dee Dee.

Prophecy

We have just returned from a two weeks vacation in Nevada where we stayed at Bubie's Dude Ranch. This ranch is run by none other than our old classmate, Charlie Bubenzer.

Ronnie Gaynor has purchased all rights to the Charles Atlas He-man courses and has changed his name to Atlas Gaynor. Women faint and desert their husbands when they see pictures of Ronnie on his ads.

Joyce Franzman, author of the book entitled, "How To Get Along With People" has been living the life of luxury after selling 1000 copies to Jeannine Huber, wife of the noted Charlie Moore, after their recent separation. After reading the book, Jean is convinced she is wrong.

David Chenault has retired after winning world fame for scoring 182 points against Notre Dame in a Notre Dame-Last Chance University game.

Ramona Seibert has been mistaken for a runaway native girl that had fallen heir to the Pugooto Islands where she now reigns as queen.

June Lyons Farmer attained fame when quintuplets were born to her and David.

Albert Harpe now holds the position of dog-catcher, peace officer, and street cleaner in Rome, Indiana.

Dickie Meador is the warden at Boys' Reform School.

Judy Cadwell married her ideal man, Jim Steinsberger and at present is assisting him shacking baseballs at Yankee Stadium.

Ann Forsaith, running for president, proposes the adoption of an amendment giving women control of the government.

David Shores, the mayor of Cannelton has been accused of squandering public funds for monuments in honor of himself and his friends.

Mrs. Earl Lauer, the former Wanda Payne is vacationing in Hawaii while her husband is buying fresh orchids for their florist shop.

Allan and Linus Schraner are being billed as the "Schraner Bros." You may see them do a dance on the tight wire any time you want.

Betty Farquhar is the star of the modern version of the show, "Forever Amber."

Russell Stith, owner of the Circle C Ranch almost lost his life when hired help mistook him for a "Badman", but Squirt Rutherford, his faithful friend and foreman saved his life.

Wanda McFarling has been named catcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Joe McDaniel is now a male model for the "Tony Home Permanents."

Larry Dawson has just been named pres. of the National Accident Prevention Society.

Jim Milburn has been busily preparing for his trip to the Olympics.

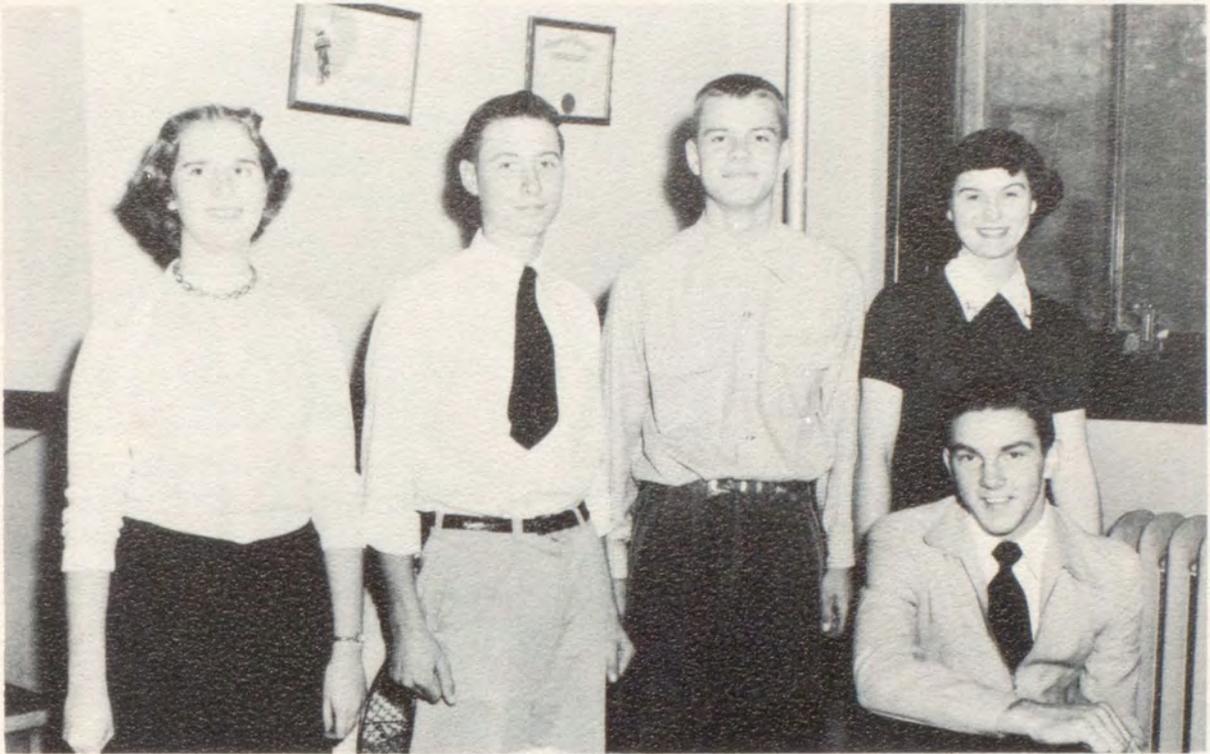

Raymond Raley and Leroy Shores have just taken over the Pabst Blue Ribbon brewery, by all flavor tests they have made it is the best.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have bought Norman Schroeder, along with him went Norm Nugent, an old vet of baseball, as their shortstop.

Augusta Walls is now running a chain of dry good stores. She gained her experience in this field from her "Grampa."

Dwain Leaf has just opened a large meat packing house and Bill Bell is acting as his personal secretary.

And now for a glance back to "dear old CHS" where all these young people got their start, we find their old sponsors still having the same old trouble coping with the minds of other seniors about to embark upon their chosen careers. Yes, Coach Denny Ramsey and Mrs. Mildred Vaughn are still Senior Sponsors.
