TIP #7

Lunch is a time when students can get together with peers and talk about anything and everything. But beware: The TVs are always on weird channels.

TIP #8

There comes a time in a student's life when they realize a very important fact: Concentration and hard work are the key to learning anything.

TIP #9

Be prepared to work with others: Teamwork is essential for success.

MARKSMEN LIVE IT UP

STUDENT LIFE

Students are constantly fighting the crowds in the hallway after the dismissal bell rings, and worrying about that test coming up next period, but what else is going on in these students' school lives? There are assignments and projects to worry about and sports right after school to get ready for. But there are also friends who need cheering up and pep sessions and rallies for which to anticipate. Here at TCHS, students are always ready for the next big adventure, whether it be entering the talent show, having a group in the Lip Sync contest, or coming to Tell City from a far away place. Our students have the ability to put themselves out there and show everyone that they are true players in the game of Student Life.

KING AND QUEEN TO THE RESCUE

Chelsea Hanks and Brad Leiberling stand under the arch after being announced King and Queen. Chelsea said, "I didn't expect to win!"

FOOTBALL HOME COMING

On September 30, 2011, homecoming representatives gathered in the gym to take pictures and count down the minutes until showtime. Everyone was very excited and proud for this opportunity, including sophomore representative Clint Waninger, who said he was very proud that his classmates nominated him. King and Queen winners were Brad Leiberling and Chelsea Hanks, who were extremely honored. Homecoming was followed up with the game, pictures, and congratulations.

Sarah Mann and Clint Waninger stand on the football field waiting for the King and Queen to be named. They were the sophomore representatives.

“I was proud that my classmates thought enough of me to be part of homecoming.”

—KLYNE WANINGER, SENIOR

“My biggest fear was that I would trip and fall in front of everyone.”

—MCKENZIE HAYES, JUNIOR

HEALTH OCCUPATIONS, ADVOCATES, AND KEY CLUBS

TCHS had three clubs that openly volunteered their time to help with their surrounding and peers. HOSA was sponsored by Mrs. Doogs. HOSA has multiple ways of helping out with others. Most of the students investigate medical fields by visiting different places. Advocates Club is also a part of TCHS. The Advocates Club is sponsored by Mrs. Hassfuther, with help from Mrs. Hess, Mrs. Arnold, and Mrs. Lenn. Students that participate in Advocates Club mostly help out with the special needs program. Amy Hollinden is the program director of Key Club. Key Club is a group of responsible students that go out of their way to help clean and improve our community.

JAG, DRAMA, HACKY SACK, SPANISH, AND PEP CLUBS

Drama Club is put together by Mr. Robinson and JAG's leader is Mrs. Robinson. JAG and Drama Club helped host the talent show. Hacky Sack is directed by Mrs. Cain. This club is made of TCHS students that love to play hacky sack. Mrs. Sanders is the head of the Spanish Club. Spanish Club students do multiple fun activities. They also run fundraisers to help students pay for the Puerto Rico trip. Mr. John Hayes runs the Pep Club. Pep Club students are always the people in the stands cheering all of TCHS sports teams on.

STUDENT COUNCIL, NHS, RENAISSANCE, STUDENT STEERING COMMITTEE

Student Council is one of our many organizations at TCHS sponsored by Mr. Nick Weyer; Mr. Weyer also helps sponsor National Honor Society with Mrs. Kehl and Student Steering Committee. Student Council is the main part of how our activities are put together. Each student works hard to prepare every dance and spring fling at TCHS. NHS is based on four ideas: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Student Steering Committee brings the former Renaissance students together to plan ideas to make TCHS a better place. Renaissance has long been a tradition held at TCHS. Renaissance students arrange many special school activities. Renaissance is overseen by Mrs. Kehl and Mr. Lacy.

WINTER

WINTER DANCE

The winter dance was held on January 13 with a theme of cabin fever. It began at 8:00 and was over around midnight. Approximately three hundred and thirty students attended the dance, which is more than half of the student body. It was all made possible by the Student Council, headed by Mr. Weyer. Several students volunteered for any last minute preparations that needed to be done. It all came together very well. Plenty of students left that night with cabin fever.

Junior Leah Lasher and sophomore Kylie Shepard smile for the camera. Both were wearing lovely dresses.

SURVIVING THE DANCE

Sophomore Drew Mowery gives a thumbs up. This was Drew's second year attending the dance.

Students gather at a table to take a quick break from the dance. They took many breaks throughout the night.

“We started making dance preparations in November, and the final product came together well. Students said they had a great time; therefore, the dance was successful.”
-MR. NICK WEYER, STAFF

“The dance was funky fresh. I got down. I was rippin' up the dance floor with my dynamite dance skills.”
-AUSTIN SCHAAD, JUNIOR

Sophomore Shamia Buchanan dances to "Save Me" by Nicki Minaj. She was the winner of the second annual TCJSHS Talent Show competition.

TALENT SHOW

The Tell City Junior-Senior High School Talent Show was held in December. It was hosted by TCHS' JAG and Drama Club. The host of the show was sophomore Kyle Boyer. The judges were Randy Roccia, Sharilyn Franzman, and Courtney Herberer. The crew included Sam Burton and Addie Peter, stage managers; Caleb Oleson, tech coordinator; Jacob Miller, spotlight; Dylan Ingle, main lights; Gage Otto, photographer; Logan Richards and David Peter, video; and Sebastian Sturgeon, assistant. The show included such acts as Milt Wilson performing stand-up comedy and Bryan Roberts playing "Fade to Black" by Metallica on guitar.

Junior Kendall Bennett receives her prizes for winning third place in the competition. She sang "Half of My Heart" by John Mayer.

SURVIVING THE TALENT

Freshman Madeline Yockey sings her solo. She sang "Wonderwall" by Oasis.

Freshman Kira Maddie sings and plays "You Are My Sunshine." Kira came in second overall at the talent show.

“My favorite part of hosting the talent show was making terrible jokes.”

—KYLE BOYER, SOPHOMORE

“It was an incredible once-in-a-lifetime experience to play in front of a crowd like that.”

—BRYAN ROBERTS, JUNIOR

Daniel Garces, Maria Rosenbachova, Theresa Hantschel, Lorenzo Brigato.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

Tell City High School has a mixture of different cultures this year! Our foreign exchange students learned about different lifestyles of people here in America. Four foreign exchange students walked the halls of the school. From Colombia in South America to Germany, Italy, and Slovakia in Europe, these students grew accustomed to the American way of living. Each of the students was involved in activities in Tell City. Daniel Garces Arteaga, Lorenzo Brigato, Theresa Hantschel, and Maria Rosenbachova learned to live the "American way" here in Tell City.

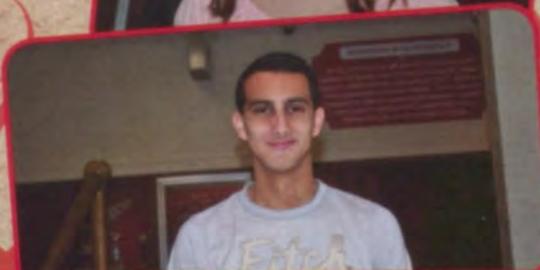

The foreign exchange students walk down the halls of Tell City High School. Although the students were from many different places, they stuck together when they were in America.

SURVIVING AMERICA

Junior Maria Rosenbachova poses for the camera. Maria was a student from Slovakia.

Junior Daniel Garces is all smiles. Daniel came to Tell City from Colombia.

All four foreign exchange students join together for a picture. The students felt like a true family.

“ My favorite thing about living in America is that I can know a lot of new friends.”
 —LORENZO BRIGATO FROM ITALY

“ My favorite thing to eat in America is fast food. I like everything.”
 —THERESA HANTSCHTEL FROM GERMANY

Queen Rachel Woznicki smiles while King Chris Kohnert places the crown on her head. Both seniors were very surprised to be announced as King and Queen.

BASKETBALL HOME COMING

Basketball homecoming was held on February 3, 2012. All candidates were very honored to be known as the representatives of their class. The applause was throughout the crowd at Bryan Taylor Sports Arena as Chris Kohnert and Rachel Woznicki were announced as King and Queen. Of course, all of them had knots in their stomachs, but freshman Luke Thomas said his worst thought was that he was going to trip and smash his face on the floor! The whole night was full of nothing but smiles.

Seniors Hunter Greubel and Kyra Howe pose for a picture after the king and queen were announced. They were both honored to be on the homecoming court.

“ I wasn't really that nervous...until we started to walk down the court.”

-CHARISSA LAHEE,
JUNIOR

“ I was nervous at first.. I didn't really know how I was going to make it down the court on my crutches.”

- JORDAN HECK,
SENIOR

SURVIVING THE FLASHES

Sophomore candidate Emily Olberding is walked under the arch escorted by Grant Sanders.

Seniors Darian Allen and Hana Reed wait under the arch for some quick snapshots.

Homecoming Court: L. Thomas, T. Hantschel, G. Sanders, E. Olberding, L. Brigato, C. Lahee, Crown Bearer Ava Kreilein, Queen R. Woznicki, King C. Kohnert, Crown Bearer Carter Fleck, D. Allen, H. Reed, H. Greubel, K. Howe, J. Heck, S. Goffinet.

Seniors Guy Madison, Luke Stepp, and Aaron Peter, a.k.a. The Winchesters, perform "It's the End of the World as We Know It" by R.E.M. They ended the night placing fourth in their third and final year participating in the contest.

“ Oh yes! I will do it again next year if I have the chance.”

-JACKIE NISWONGER, JUNIOR

“ When I signed up for Lip Sync I felt like I was free falling through the clouds with a mane of fire about my head.”

-LANE CZORA, JUNIOR

SURVIVING
LIP SYNC

Sophomores Gage Otto, Christian Orellana, Dylan Ingle and junior Jalen Harris surf along to "Surfin' Safari" by the Beach Boys. This act was not a placing act, but the group was very happy with their performance.

Mr. Robinson sings to "Shout" while Mrs. Hilgenhold, Mrs. Goodrich, and Mrs. Chestnut dance along. Even though they didn't get judged, they were a crowd pleaser.

Seniors Kaylie Miller, Chelsea Hanks, and Aleah Horton perform "Tik Tok" by Ke$ha and "Come Together" by the Beatles. Their remix placed second this year.

In the play This Is a Test, these students, played by senior Jamie Holman, freshman Mercedes Mendez, and senior Rachel Woznicki, try to take a difficult test. Rachel played the main character, Alicia.

THIS IS A TEST & TAKE 5

A lot had happened in this evening of theater: A test that could change students' futures and a play that goes very wrong. The cast of This Is A Test included: Rachel Woznicki as Alicia, Sam Burton as Lois, Robyn Scarpa as the teacher, Jackie Niswonger as Evelyn, Jamie Holman as Chris, Mercedes Mendez as Mimi, Jasmine Board as Elizabeth, Garrett Smith as Pat, Jessica Arnold as Alicia's mother, Sarah Mann as The Voice. The Drama Club in that play included: Shamia Buchannan, Gage Otto, Amity Lain, Trent Harding, and Madeline Yockey. The cast of Take 5 included: Blake Alvey as Mike, Dylan Ingle as Lester, Christian Orellana as Alex Crain, Kyra Howe as Sharon Crain, Kyle Boyer as Greg Baxter, and Chelsea Hanks as Gladys.

❧ PROM ❧

Friends gathered, couples mingled, and romance was in the air. Groups of friends gathered to eat dinner together before heading to the prom. The prom committee worked hard to put up a spectacular Paris tower accompanied by thousands of lights at the Tell City Schergens Center for Tell City High School's 2012 prom on April 28th. The theme for the 2012 was "A Twinkle in Time."

Junior Hannah Schaefer enjoys dancing with friends during prom.

“It was a lot more fun than last year and the decorations were a lot better than last year too.”

-SHANQUILLA KELLER, SENIOR

“I enjoyed the music and dancing with my friends all night long”

-JESSICA BALLMAN, SENIOR

SURVIVING

Junior Daniel Garces crowns junior Jessica Braun as prom princess. Daniel won the title of prince.

Senior Bailey Malone slow dances with junior Nick Edwards. Before arriving at prom, they ate at a friend's house with over 20 other students.

Junior Kendall Bennett has fun with junior Emilee Morton. They danced the night away with a group of friends.

Sophomore Madison Hagman and junior Travis Robinson compete with each other in a cup stacking game. Travis used his fast hands to beat Madison at this game.

❖❖ AFTER-PROM ❖❖

After-prom has always been an exciting activity to students that follows up one of the most important nights of the year. Every student looks forward to a night where they can hang out with all their school friends and play many fun, exciting games and have lots of chances to win huge prizes. Many students go home with prizes such as flat-screen TVs, cash, and much more. To win these prizes you must first get tickets from the different games like "The Ticket Taxi," "The Money Machine," and many more. Even though after-prom will end up a very late night, it is still worth staying up for.

Senior Travis Harpenau tries his luck in the popular after-prom money machine. Travis left the machine with a total of $25.

“After-prom was great. My favorite part was the photo booth. I didn’t stay to win any big prizes, but I definitely should have.”

—KAYLA GALLOWAY, SENIOR

“It was a pretty legit time!”

—RAY ADAMS, SENIOR

SURVIVING AFTER-PROM

Junior Will Roberts plays a football throwing game. This game was just one of the many other exciting games to play at after-prom.

Senior Jacob Miller is busy signing his many won tickets. Doing this gave him a greater chance at winning a big prize.

Seniors Kristina Larrison and Kenny McCallister play each other in a game of cornhole. After-prom has always been a good way for students to relax and have fun.

Junior James Payne jumps, about to dive into the pool. A lot of students enjoyed using the diving board to do cool tricks into the pool.

SPRING FLING

Basketball, cornhole, frisbee, cards, and swimming were just some of the activities offered to students at this year's Spring Fling. The annual cardboard boat races were hosted by Mr. Bill Alvey, who, with the help of others, grilled a great lunch of hamburgers, hotdogs, and creek-fried potatoes for the students and faculty of Tell City High School. This year was Mr. Weyer's first year hosting Spring Fling. When asked what his favorite thing about hosting Spring Fling was, he said, "Seeing students smile, laugh, and have fun."

Sophomore Willie Yates plays basketball with some other students. Willie had a great time at Spring Fling.

SURVIVING THE BOAT RACE

“ My favorite part about Spring Fling was the cardboard boat races.”

KAYLA SEIFERT, JUNIOR

“ My favorite thing about Spring Fling was being able to hang out with friends and play cards.”

TRE BLAND, FRESHMAN

Seniors Ray Adams and Hayley Middleton play cornhole with fellow students. They both thought this was a very fun game.

Freshman Mason Waninger paddles his boat during the cardboard boat races. His boat did very well!

TIP #10

The key to getting a good grade in a speech class is to be able to smile even if you feel like you're bombing.

TIP #11

Be ready to dig deep into your studying skills and don't be afraid to get a little dirty.

TIP #12

Choose classes that interest you because they will help you to concentrate better, not only in that class but also in other classes.

MARKSMEN PREPARATION

ACADEMICS

Preparing for tests, doing assignments, and taking time to look over materials are just some of the ways that students at Tell City High School have learned to pass their classes. Whether they are the new-to-the-school freshman class or the old timer seniors, they have been given the opportunity to prepare themselves, with the guidance of several fabulous teachers and other wonderful staff members. Every student at this school is able to succeed because although they all come from different experiences, they are all Marksmen now and TCHS is proud to have them.

WILLY WONKA & THE ACADEMIC FACTORY

ACADEMIC KICK-OFF

This year's theme for Renaissance's Academic Kick-Off was Willy Wonka and the Academic Factory. Students in the Renaissance class came up with the theme by a process of elimination. The show was hosted by Willy Wonka, a.k.a. Mr. Lacy. The Oompa Loompas stayed up as late as 1:30 a.m. the night before preparing for the show, and the Renaissance class spent about two months getting ready for the visitors. The class completed fundraisers and received donations from Century Club members to raise the money for the kick-off. The show was ended by the Oompa Loompas dancing to their Oompa Loompa song and also to "Party Rock Anthem" by LMFAO. Overall, high school students felt that the kick-off was a success.

"My favorite part of the Pep Rally was winning the dance competition."

"The dance competition was rigged."

-THE "A"
(SENIOR BLAKE ALVEY)

-THE "F"
(JUNIOR JALEN HARRIS)

THEY
WHAT?

The Oompa Loompas dance on stage. They were everyone's favorite act of the Academic Kick-Off.

Junior Nikki Payton spits gumballs into Willy Wonka's hat. The juniors won the contest by a very close call.

Teachers Mr. and Mrs. Robinson pose for the camera the day of the Kick-Off. They dressed up as the golden tickets from Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory.

SURVIVING ANOTHER LESSON!

ENGLISH & SOCIAL STUDIES

This year the English department got a new teacher, Mrs. Hilgenhold. Teaching by her side were Mrs. Aubrey, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Robinson. Mr. Hall was in charge of AP Literature and Composition; Mrs. Aubrey taught Advanced Composition, Advanced Speech, and English 12; Mr. Robinson taught 10th grade English; and Mrs. Hilgenhold was head of 9th grade English. When asked about how she thought the year went, Mrs. Hilgenhold said, "What a great year! I feel so blessed to be teaching in the community where I live. I look forward to many years to come!!" The Social Studies department also got a new teacher, Mr. Noble, who also taught English lab. The rest of the department consisted of Mr. Lacy, Mrs. Kehl, and Mr. Kincaid. Mr. Kincaid taught Government, Mr. Lacy taught American History, Mrs. Kehl instructed World History and AP American History, and Mr. Noble who taught World History.

"Freshman year was a little hard at first, but as long as you work hard and do your homework you can easily pass."

-DALTON SNYDER,

"Speech is a fun class that has helped me overcome my fear of speaking in front of others."

-JESSICA ARNOLD,
SENIOR

THEY SAID WHAT?

Mr. Lacy teaches his U.S. History class about the Tennessee Valley Authority put into effect under the New Deal. He has been teaching students this topic for twenty-four years.

Seniors Steven Dunn, Guy Madison, and Travis Harpenau wait for the next activity their class will participate in. Mrs. Aubrey's English 12 class worked in groups to earn points while studying Lord of the Flies.

The students in Mrs. Kehl's World History class learn about the Bourbon family. With her new smartboard, she was able to teach the students in a new way.

SURVIVING ANOTHER LESSON!

MATH & SCIENCE

Here at Tell City High School we have great math and science departments. The teachers that help make it so great are Mr. Weyer, Mr. Lyons, Mr. D. Alvey, Mr. J. Johnson, Mr. B. Alvey, Mr. Kreilein, and Mrs. Thomas. Mr. Weyer taught Algebra I, Algebra II, and Business Math; Mr. Lyons taught Pre-Calculus & Trigonometry, geometry, and Algebra I; Mr. D. Alvey was in charge of Calculus, Pre-Algebra, and Algebra II; Mr. J. Johnson taught Biology I, Earth Science, and Environmental Science; Mr. B. Alvey taught Biology I, Biology I Honors, and Physics; Mr. Kreilein taught Integrated Chemistry & Physics, Chemistry I, and AP Chemistry; and Mrs. Thomas taught Biology I, Biology II, and Anatomy & Physiology. Mr. B. Alvey's advice to his students was, "You can lead a horse farther than you can drag one."

"My favorite part of Calculus this year was the one time that we took a 'tiz,' something in between a test and a quiz."

-JENNIFER DINKEL,
SENIOR

"I'm glad that I decided to take Anatomy. Mrs. Thomas has taught me a lot. I loved dissecting the cats; it was by far the best."

-DARIAN ALLEN,
SENIOR

WHAT?

Junior Sean Mitchell burns a glass tube in order to make it bend. He was working on a lab in Mr. Kreilein's chemistry class.

Junior Lane Czora drops his egg vessel from three meters up. His group worked hard to build the vessel just right so that the egg wouldn't break when being dropped from high altitudes.

Sophomore Massey Drake and senior Ray Adams use sidewalk chalk to graph equations outside. They did this activity in Mr. Weyer's Algebra II class.

SURVIVING ANOTHER LESSON!

VOCATIONAL & ARTS

The vocational and arts classes are a huge contribution to Tell City High School. These classes prepare students for life after high school. Several students took these types of classes. The classes include Building Trades, Nutrition and Wellness, HOSA, JAG, Adult Roles, Children Development, and Applied Music. Mrs. Goodrich teaches all of the art classes, including 2-D and 3-D art, Commercial Arts & Graphic Design, Ceramics and Art & Graphing Design. Building Trades, taught by Mr. Craney, is a class where all the students go out and build a house. Classes such as Child Development and Adult Roles were taught by Mrs. Glenn.

"Electrical was my favorite part of building the house. I might look into going to an electrical class for college."

"Sign language is really hard to learn, but Alec is really good at helping you out."

-CASSIDY ALLINGER,
JUNIOR

-CHELSEA HANKS,
SENIOR

THEY SAID WHAT?

Juniors Nicholas Edwards and Justin Walker work on a car in Auto Technology. They were draining the oil from Mrs. Glenn's car to do an oil change.

Senior Zach Taylor and freshman Collin Miller cut out their vinyl designs. They worked hard to make the designs in Mr. R. Johnson's Communications class.

YEARBOOK

This year's yearbook class consisted of 10 students, 3 of which were boys, a first for yearbook class. Even though there were only 2 returning girls to the class, the staff still found ways to understand how yearbook works. With the help of their printer Herff Jones, the class members made the 2012 book become a reality. The staff used a Nikon D40 and a Nikon D3000 to take most of the pictures. The Herff Jones yearbook representative was Angela St. Clair, and the yearbook advisers were Mrs. Aubrey and Mrs. Goodrich. The editor this year was Kyle Boyer. Special thanks to Danny Bolin, Larry Goffinet, Shanquilla Keller, Jennifer Dinkel, and Larky Flannagan for pictures throughout the year as well as to Aleah Horton for helping with the artwork for the cover and the endsheets.

Sophomores Dylan Ingle, Gage Otto, and Kyle Boyer don't know what to do with their hands. They were the only guys this year in yearbook trying to survive a group of girls.

SURVIVING THE BOOK

“Yearbook is the most fun class you can take. And I am the Photoshop queen!”

—JENNY HESS, SOPHOMORE

“It makes me proud to know that people will look at the handiwork of the yearbook class and smile. But the deadlines make me want to crawl under the desk.”

—CASSIE BLAIR, JUNIOR

Sophomore Dylan Ingle dresses up as the yearbook. He played the role well in the Marksmen Memo.

The yearbook class poses after hard work on the yearbook commercial. Mr. Hall crashed this picture.

The whole yearbook class takes a stroll in the streets, trying to reenact the Abbey Road cover from The Beatles.

ACADEMIC PEP RALLY !

NICK-A+-LODEON WE SURVIVED THE SLIME!

This was the 11th annual Academic Pep Rally at Tell City High School put on by the Renaissance class and Student Steering Committee. The theme that was chosen for 2012 was Nick-A+-Lodeon. The pep rally consisted of four dress-up days. The last day was for everyone to dress up as their favorite character from Nickelodeon. The students and even the staff seemed to have a lot of fun with this. Throughout the pep rally there were fun-filled skits, and PowerPoint presentations of the students trying to act like characters from various Nickelodeon shows. When asked what she thought about the Academic Pep Rally, senior Sarah Sharpe said, "The theme was really fun and exciting, and the Renaissance class pulled it off well."

"I thought the slime in the obstacle course was really cool, and the whole thing was put together really well."

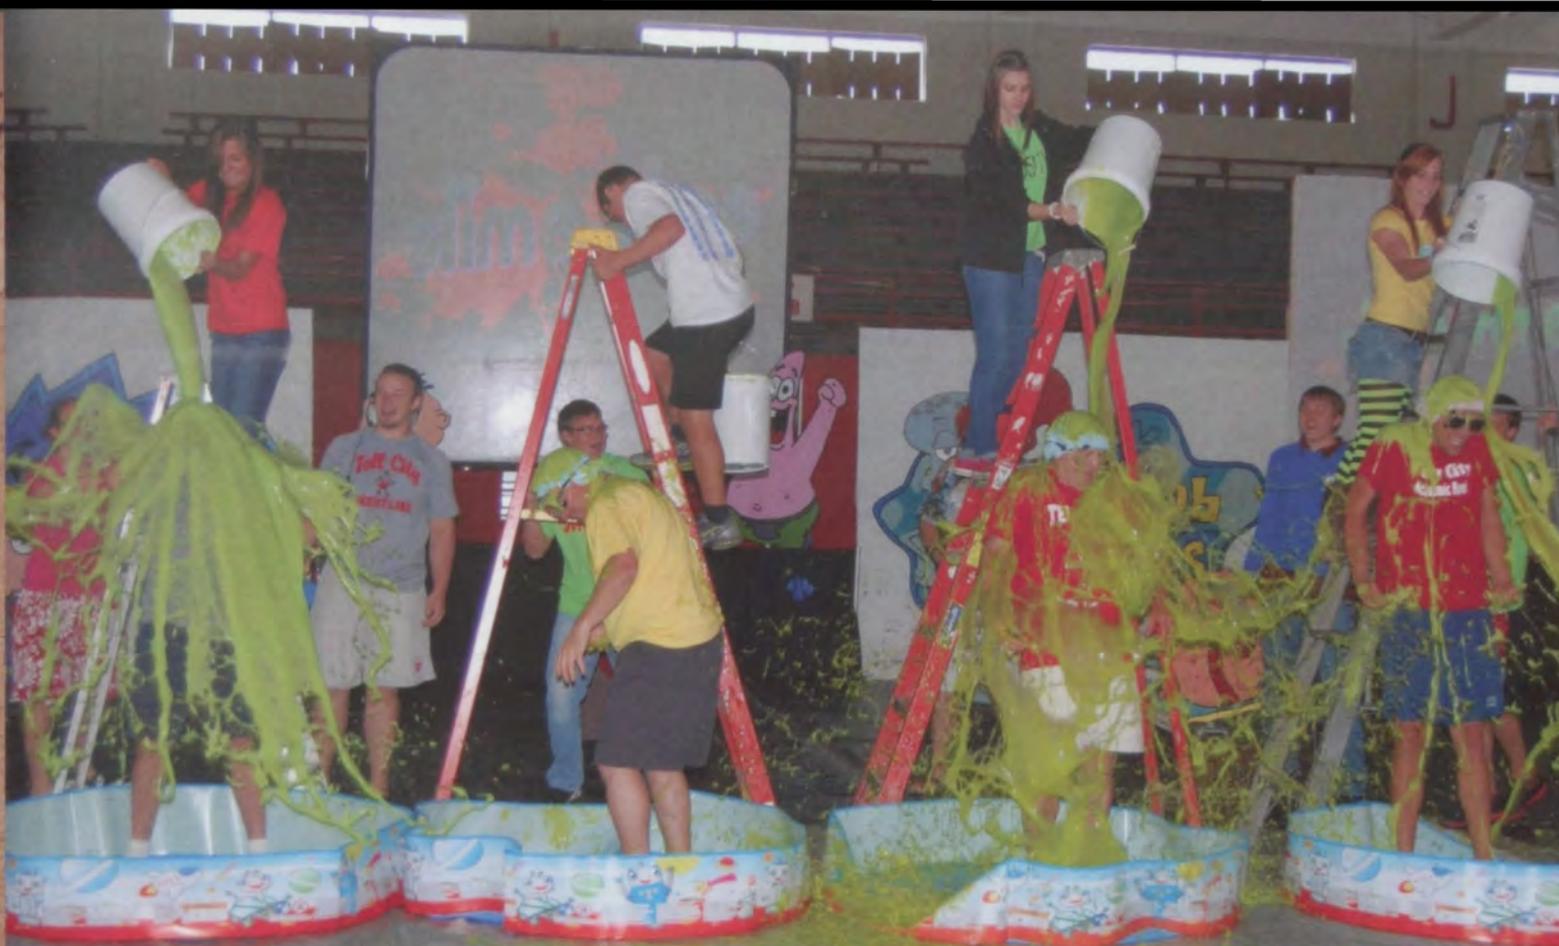

"I thought the pep rally was really fun this year, and it made everyone feel really involved. The slime is what topped it all off!"

- KENNY MCCALLISTER,
SENIOR

WHAT?

-KIRA MADDLE,

As part of the T.V. series Slime Time Live teachers Mr. Kincaid, Mr. Ramsey, Mr. Lyons, and Mr. Weyer were slimed by one of the chosen students. Only one teacher was supposed to be slimed, but they all ended up being slimed.

Mr. Robinson and the boy scouts sing the song "Campfire Song Song" from Spongebob Squarepants. All that were involved with this skit had a great time with the sing-a-long.

Freshman Mariah Blake hops through the obstacle course at the pep rally. Mariah dressed up as Angelica from the T.V. series Rugrats.

THE LAST ROUND

ACADEMIC TEAMS

On March 6, 2012, the Tell City High School academic teams packed up their things and headed to Tecumseh, Indiana for the Senior Academic Bowl. For months, each individual team studied, researched, and dedicated countless hours to their team or teams in order to receive that coveted first place at PAC. Their hard work paid off when Tell City tied for first place with North Posey. With a total score of 95 out of 150, Tell City won the Academic PAC for the sixth consecutive year. "I am very proud of how my team and other teams did this year." Shelly Goodrich, fine arts coach, said. "We had a lot of preparation and I think it really showed." Led by Mr. Dave Alvey, the math team made it to State competition this year!
