HAMMER DOWN?!?!?

"Hammer Down" What is it? Defined by Webster, a hammer is "a hand tool consisting of a solid head, set crosswise on handle and used for pounding." Webster defines down by saying "toward or to the ground." But to Tell City High School students these words have an entirely different meaning. Here are some of the unique interpretations this phrase has had this year;

Despite all the different interpretations, when anyone said "Hammer" or "Hammer Down" you knew that something exciting was going on. Some people felt that this phrase was overused but others knew it was the "in" thing to say. "You Had To Be There To Hammer Down In '88" is definitely a unique title for a yearbook but we are definitely a unique class. This year's yearbook class felt that this title expressed the excitement of the year.

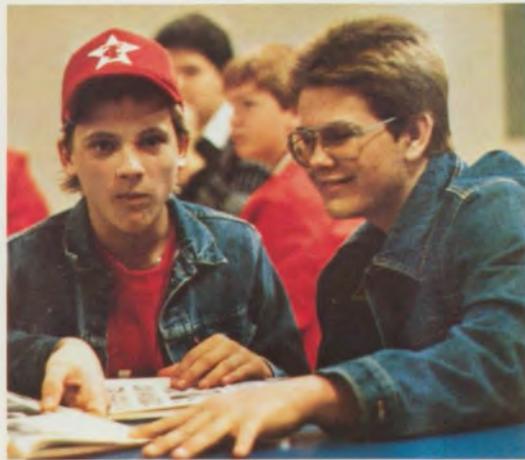

- Drive a nail in the wood.
- Get a wheel.
- Pedal to the metal.
- Party down.
- Put on your "Bernie" shoes and party it up.
- Get down on your bad self.
- Forget your ideas and down the last can in your cooler.
- Go for the world and don't let anything get in your way to success.
- A down block in football.
- Put everything down to win.
- Toughen up.
- Giving the best you've got.
- Get fired up.
- Go for it.

Students at Tell City High School do some weird things or at least they appear weird on the surface. But most of these things have an educational meaning behind them—although some are done in fun. With schoolwork and some students with jobs, students and teachers as well need time to relax. Here are some ways we found: some students like to lay down, listen to the radio, eat, read a book, drag main, take a shower, go to a friend's house, be with a boyfriend or girlfriend, talk on the phone, watch television, or just do nothing. Well, that is some ways other people relax. How do you relax??

SOME WORK AND SOME PLAY

There is a time to goof-off and a time to be serious. When it comes to grades that is the time most students choose to be serious. By the time students reach high school they have realized that they cannot let their grades go and goof-off. But there is a time to "let your hair down" even in school. You can have fun while still keeping up your grades.

QUEEN FOR A NIGHT

T.C.H.S. "Hammered Down" to celebrate Homecoming Week '87 by showing their school spirit. It all started Wednesday, September 16th, when the T.C.H.S. students wore sweats to school. Thursday we celebrated by wearing our clothes backwards. Homecoming dressup days ended with the wearing of jerseys, hats, and shades. Along with the unusual dress code, Mr. Overmeyer and the student council introduced the T.C.H.S. money jars. Each class tried to raise the most money in assigned jars. Pennies were counted against the classes. The Seniors won the money jar contest. The pep session topped the Homecoming week by the annual tug of war, which was won by the Juniors, and the clothes race was dominated by the Sophomores and Freshmen. The Juniors also received the Spirit Jug by winning the hall decorating contest.

The mood for the Homecoming game was definitely set with enthusiasm of the fans. The decorations by the student council, enhanced the drab stadium, which was filled with splashes of red. The rain that night never seemed to be a major obstacle seeing how the line of anxiously awaiting fans were backed up over a block from the field in order to see the game, the Marching Marksmen debut their new uniforms, and the candidates spirits were not dampened.

The candidates for Queen were nominated by the senior football players and then voted upon by the student body. The nominees were Kim Peckenpaugh and her escort Nick Paulin, Misty Dickman escorted by Mark Finley, Kristy Black escorted by Tim Pruitt and Ami Wicker escorted by George Parker. Each candidate arrived in separate Corvettes to where their escorts awaited to walk them onto the field. As they reached their positions on the field a hush had hurred over the anxiously awaiting crowd and the drum roll sounded, the name Miss Kirsty Black was announced as the Queen. Colorful balloons were set free, the crown was placed upon her head by her escort Tim Pruitt. Lahna Seaman, President of Student Council, presented Miss Kristy Black with a dozen red roses, and a kiss of congratulation was awarded to her by Tim Pruitt.

Cheerleaders display their enthusiasm by bringing the team on the field, as band members, Susan Poelein and Melissa Kress, show-off the new band uniforms. The Tell City Marksmen oppose the Booneville Pioneers as they were defeated 10 to 7.

STUDENTS HAMMER

Many students at Tell City High School found that they preferred part-time jobs to extra free time. The jobs ranged from cooking food in a restaurant to pumping gas at a gas station. Some worked to maintain cars, while others worked to prepare themselves for college or future trips. To most of the students, they worked simply to achieve satisfaction of having plenty of extra spending money. Although many jobs go unnoticed, some of the other students receive work from other job sources such as babysitting, mowing lawns, cleaning in houses, and many other odd jobs.

QUEEN LAHNA RECEIVES HOMECOMING HONORS

The crowning of the 1987-88 Basketball Homecoming queen took place on February 5th. The queen candidates were chosen by the senior members of the basketball team. They chose Misty Dickman, Merrie Noble, Kim Peckenpaugh, and Lahna Seamon. Brad Evrard, Jeff Haller, Kevin Barket, and Kent Hammack were their escorts for the night. The class attendants this year were Jamie Rice, Christie Oberhausen, and Beth Carlson. They chose Eddie Coleman, Ryan George, and Chip Pride as their escorts.

On February 2nd, the student body voted for queen. As Friday night rolled around the four queen candidates became more anxious. Finally, there was a drum roll and Sarah Freeman and Krista Blunk announced the name of Lahna Seamon to be the 1987-88 Basketball Homecoming queen.

In addition to all the excitement of the homecoming week, Friday at school the student body decided to protest not having a pep session. Before seventh period students gathered in senior hall to have a sit-in. The administration was not pleased with the sit-in, and the faculty called the students, "Rebels without a cause . . . ", so they say.

STUDENTS HAMMER THE HALLS

At Tell City High School, our halls are used for much more than passageways. Our halls have been used for a variety of other things such as a place to catch up on the latest gossip, to catch up on last minute homework, to be with your boyfriend or girlfriend, to hold sit-ins, and wait for the 7:45 bell.

The juniors and seniors are the only students allowed in their halls before the 7:45 bell. The freshmen and sophomores are not allowed in their halls. As a result, the freshmen must sit in the hall by the girl's gym and the sophomores sit in the stairways by the Bryan Taylor Sports Arena as well as the stairways leading up to sophomore hall. All in all hallways are the only means of transportation that we have to get to our classes.

On the way to classes and before school we have a lot of extra time. We have found many ways to occupy that time. Lots of things we do in the halls that we cannot mention here but hopefully we have highlighted the more popular ideas.

Deanna Billings and Sharron Carmichael are two of the many office helpers that roam the halls to pick up absentee slips.

Kevin Barket and Coy Zuelly demonstrate that there are more purposes for the halls, especially when running late for practice.

Eddie Voges and Joe Mathena use the halls to catch up on the latest gossip.

Sophomores, Shannon McCallister, Zeenat Dowlut, Terria Ballis, Tara Pruitt, Laura Young, Kathy Young, and Tricia Coomer, pause from their decorating to have their picture taken.

"Greenie fever" hits Sherrie McCallister, Marigayle Taylor, Devonna Doersam, Tonia Williams, Jason Kellems, Brandi Mills, and Don Bailey.

LISA TRIBLE

Senior Lisa Tribble is the daughter of Yvonne Tribble. Her hobbies include spending time with Joe, reading, and listening to the radio. Lisa plans to major in special education and attending Vincennes University. Her favorite past-time is listening to the radio and being with Joe. The clubs that she participates in are: Advocates Yearbook (where currently she is the editor). In ten years Lisa plans to be teaching Special Education and married to Joe with at least one child. Her advice to the underclassmen: "Work as hard as you can while still giving time to have fun." She feels the major problem in the world today is "Aids".

KEVIN TINDLE

Kevin Tindle is the son of Sandra Tindle. His hobbies are watching T.V., lifting weights and Comic Book collecting. Kevin's favorite past-time is Baseball, and Basketball, his favorite teams are the Atlanta Braves, and the L.A. Lakers. His sports include Arm Wrestling and Weight Lifting, which consist of bench pressing 130 lbs., which is more than his weight. In ten years, his plans are undecided but he knows whatever they are, they will be near his mom. The biggest influence on his life is his mother because she never gave up on him. He feels the major problem of the world today is the drug problem with young kids. His advice to the underclassmen is, "Try your hardest and you'll make it!"

IN OUR SCHOOL

JOHN DAUBY

Junior John Dauby is the son of Ms. Norma Dauby. His hobbies are reading, watching television, and sleeping. His major and college decisions are undecided at this time. His favorite past-time is bothering Mrs. Kramer. The clubs he participates in are the Spanish Club and National Honor Society. John says that in ten years he will be working. His major influences on his life are Benny Hill, Aerosmith, and AC/DC. His advice to the underclassmen is, "Don't take any money out of your pockets when a Senior is around." He feels the major problem of the world today is drugs, and the homeless people.

BETH CARLSON

Beth Carlson is the daughter of Larry and Karen Carlson. Her hobbies are swimming, shopping, and eating. She plans to attend University of Texas, and major in College Prep. Her favorite past-time is hanging out with her buddies. She is a member of the Student Council. Beth is in swimming and track. In ten years she plans to be in college. The influences on her achievements are Coach Page and Michelle Evard. Beth feels the major problem of the world today is Nuclear War. Her advice to the underclassmen is "Don't pick on the Seniors too much!"

T.C.H.S. HAMMERS WITH ARMY STYLE

The Tell City High School Student Body was entertained this year by the United States Army Band during a 1 and a ½ hour convocation. The students were quite surprised by the exuberant behavior, and high tech equipment of the band. The highlights of the performance were Mr. Carver and Jarad Boarman being serenaded by the only female member of the band. The students were also surprised by some of the Top 40 songs that they sang, such as, "Money Money", "Heard it Through the Grapevine", "Hip to be Square", and, "Wanted Dead or Alive". Two members of the band chose Lisa Waninger and Mr. Spencer to share a slow dance with them. The Army Band also gave autographs after the show. The band was a smashing success at Tell City High School. We hope they will return next year to entertain us again.

"THAT'S WHAT LOVE

A night to dress up, to make believe, to romance, and to remember, were the descriptions that fit the 1988 Prom. As the days dwindled, the excitement mounted. The theme song for the prom was "That's What Love Is All About". Juniors, Seniors, and their dates filled the National Guard Armory on April 8, with a sound and light show, decided by the Junior class. Royal blue and silver balloons completed this year's prom setting. Each year the Junior class is responsible for the cost and decoration of the prom. Magazine sales helped to finance this special event. Many faculty members were on hand to share in the event, such as Mr. Hall and Mr. Varner.

The 1988 Prom Queen and court were voted by the students entering the prom. Queen Sherri Luecke and her escort Jeff Haller were surrounded by Senior attendants Angie Hutchins, escorted by Nick Paulin, Missy Rhodes, escorted by John Stiles, Ami Wicker, escorted by Earl Borders, and Junior attendants Michelle Evrard, escorted by Craig George, Holly Hagedorn, escorted by Greg Arnold, Krista Blunk, escorted by Brian Keown, and Theresa Linne, escorted by Greg Kincaid. With pictures, flowers, and many memories, it is unlikely that prom will be forgotten.

AFTER PROM PARTY WAS A HUGE SUCCESS

The After Prom Party was a huge success. Over two hundred students of Tell City High School and their dates attended the party. There were around six prizes given away every fifteen minutes from 1:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m. Then at 4:15 they held the drawing for the big prizes. These prizes ranged from a color t.v., a black and white t.v., to a stereo. They even held a leg contest consisting of faculty members. Prizes were awarded for the hairiest, best calves, thunder thighs, best over all, and sexiest. Students could participate in a wide variety of events. They could throw pies at the faculty, play basketball, tug-of-war, tricycle races, egg throws, dancing, and the DeLuge. All prizes were donated by local merchants and the entire thing was financed by Peoples Building and Loan Association and M.A.D.D.

Mr. Chinn, Mr. Rice, Mr. Hildenbrant, and Mr. DeSpain show off their legs in the "Great Legs Contest". Swimming was also an event at the party.

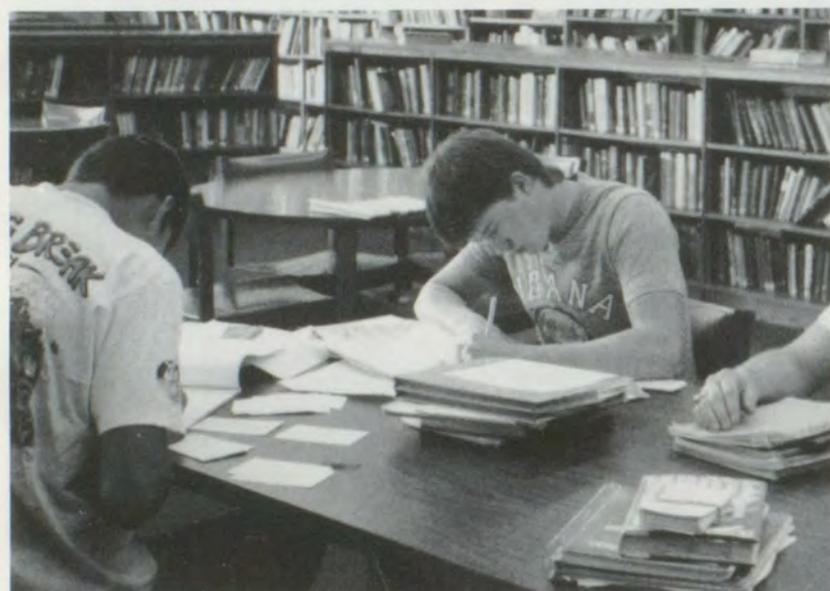

Tug-of-war and tricycle races were two games played at the after prom party.

Students get their revenge on faculty members, Mrs. Buckman, Mr. Pride, and Mr. Barnett, by throwing pies at them.

As a student of Tell City High School one has many opportunities to help ones fellow students and faculty members. One way of helping faculty members is by replacing a study hall with work in the office. There one can pick up absence slips for Mrs. Biever. One can also work in the library and help Mr. Blazey by making sure everyone from study hall has signed in, also assistance in keeping fellow students in order. Another way of helping is working for Mr. Page's and Miss Patterson's P.E. classes. Here one can help keep score of games, watch students and hand out towels. All in all students who replace their study halls with work for faculty members are not "brown nosing" but extending their education beyond the books.

WHAT ARE PEER TUTORS?

The Peer Tutors of the Life Skills Class are students who willingly give up their study halls to work with the kids in the class. Junior and Senior peer tutors receive a credit for their valuable time. They have formed a club called the "Advocates Club". The Peer Tutors, the kids and members of the community are able to participate in the club. They go out and do different activities in the community. To most of the peer tutors their period in the Life Skills Class is a highlight to their day. The peer tutors are as follows: Row 1: Don Bailey, Melissa Lechner, Jeannie Rininger, Lisa Tribble, Heather Alvey. Row 2: Sandy Hearst, Lisa Glenn, Coy Zuelly, Kelly Askins, Row 3: Vicki Hicks, Laura Moser, Lisa Peter, Tara Schneider.

THE VOCATIONAL

HOSA is concerned with the care of the elders in this town. HOSA had a Health Fair this year for everyone to check out their health.

OEA sent members to the district contest, where these members placed: Tammy Peter, Tina Karney, Leah Birchler, and Kim Moshenek. They had prepared for this contest for two weeks before, by studying other books and old tests. There were thirteen girls who attended the contest.

The VICA club has five divisions: Building Trades, Auto Mechanics, Electricity, Commercial Industrial Arts, and Welding. All of these classes teach students by actual hands-on-training. The classes are optional during the Junior and Senior year and they are fun as well as educational.

WHAT IS LIFE SKILLS?

The Life Skills class is a class teaching the mentally retarded how to function in life. The students enjoy many different activities, ranging from walking for exercise to real jobs at Dairy Queen, Dollar Store, and Evans Ford. Teachers, Mr. Boenigk, Mrs. Labhart, and Mr. Hildenbrant along with the help of peer tutors, help prepare these students for an independant life. Some of the students already work independantly like Peggy Goodwin, who works at the Dairy Queen in Tell City and the one in Rockport, she also works at the Dollar General Store. Chad Mullis works at Evans Ford and Elmer Kellems works at the Jr. High. Shannon Guillaume works at T.C.H.S. cafeteria. They are examples at how well the class is working here at Tell City. We hope the class continues and the community keeps working well with the class.

THE MARCHING MARKSMEN

The Marching Marksmen had a fabulous season. At their second contest held at Charlestown the band marched away with the Grand Champion title. At the Marching Bands of America Contest they placed ninth over all. (This competition covers a national level.) The season hit a climatic point when the Marching Marksmen went the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis and won third place in their division.

But the band isn't all marching. In the winter they become serious musicians (not that they aren't during marching season . . .). Solo and Ensemble Comptions are held and many of the members went on to compete on the State level. In the District Concert Competition, the band placed first. Early in the Spring the band traveled to St. Louis to compete in a contest sponsored by Six Flags. The Marching Marksmen placed second out of twenty-five bands. The band also managed to have some fun while in St. Louis by visiting the Arch and other points of interest.

During the Christmas season, the TCHS Chorus members were asked to perform for many organizations. Some performances were at the Tell City High School Honor Student Induction, the management for Commercial Filters at the Country Club, the Tell City Shrine, the American Legion Ladies Auxillary, and the Tell City "Sounds of Christmas Concert", for the TCHS students. The group went to State and District contest in April and were one point away from a first division. The Chorus was very pleased with this. They also hope to start a tradition by going to the competition again. This was the first year the Chorus has participated in State and District for ten years. During the last part of school, the group was asked to sing for two Mother-Daughter Banquets, and for the TCHS student body in the Spring Choir and Band Concert. The Chorus has had a successful year and hopes it will continue to have success in the years to come.

MASS MEDIA

This year the yearbook was placed under the supervision of Ms. Fullenkamp, this was her first year at Tell City High School. Under the supervision of her, the Tell City High School Newspaper called the Marksmen was brought back. The newspaper has not had an issue since 1983. This year's staff worked long hours to make the yearbook and newspaper a success. Many meetings were held after school, and at night to complete half written reports, develop pictures, make tri-copies, and all the rest of the things that go towards making a successful yearbook. Also this year there was a class called Mass Media, which helped the yearbook staff learn what media consists of.

Discussing the yearbook when flashed by the camera are Julie Christmas, Lisa Tribble, and Cherri Nix.

HONOR STUDENTS

Receiving a good education and a good beginning in training for a career is an important part of a student's high school curriculum. To get on the Honor Roll at Tell City High School, students must achieve a 3.3 grade point average. To attend the Honor Banquet, students must make the Honor Roll four out of five times. The Honor Banquet is a semi-formal occasion. The students and their parents receive a meal prepared by the High School. At the Banquet the students receive a pin, according to the number of years they have attended the Honors Banquet. Some students receive only one pin while others receive all four. How many did you receive???

Lisa, Lisa, Lisa, . . . Wait a minute? Did you stutter? No! There are really THREE Lisa's in the class. To the right: Cherri Nix and Angie Hutchins take time out from typing to pose for a picture.

Bleeding pictures, D.P.S., pica measurements, dummy sheets and tricopy . . . No your not entering a hospital . . . Your entering the Yearbook Zone!!!

The 1987-88 yearbook staff was under the new leadership of Ms. Fullenkamp, a first year teacher here at Tell City. The staff consisted of 16 seniors. Everyone worked one class period a day and few people attended the biweekly after-school and evening meetings. The staff worked long hard hours to meet their weekly deadlines set by Ms. Fullenkamp.

Many steps are involved in reaching the weekly goals. When given an assignment you must first compose a layout on a dummy sheet, then when approved it must be transferred to a tri-copy. Now you are ready to order pictures, which must be chopped, cropped and sized to fit their respective blocks. Then you are ready to write the copy (story) which must be proofread then typed. Putting this all together with the captions that go with the pictures is a brief run-down on how each of the 144 pages of your yearbook is made. (Those of you who gripe or have any complaints may join the yearbook staff next year!!!!)

"Bend your knees, lean forward, not too much now, that's better—Now PUSH ——" And the Ski Club was off, sailing down the slopes of Paoli Peaks. The club, consisting of experienced as well as novice skiers, left the high school parking lot to travel nearly an hour to hit the slopes.

Warm clothes and lots of courage to face the slopes (plus a little money) is all it takes to be involved in Ski Club. Even if you have never skied before in your life, it is time well spent.

Varsity Club. Who can join? What is it all about? The requirement for being a member of the Varsity Club consists of having a Varsity letter in any sport (including the cheerleading squad). What do the members of the Varsity Club do? The students help raise money to pay for any sports patches awarded for superior achievement. The Varsity Club raised money this year by selling raffle tickets for the game ball used in the Tell City vs. Central game. The lucky ticket holder for the game ball was Judge David Everard.

THE MAN TO

Mrs. Cartwright demonstrates the hug done by Julie Christmas and Eric Brown.

Technicians, Kent Hammack and Scott Spears were responsible for the lighting and sound for "The Man Who Came To Dinner".

"The Man Who Came To Dinner" displayed how one famous man with a big ego, Mr. Sheridan Whiteside, can turn a small-town Ohio household topsy-turvy. "Sherry", as he is known by his friends, was portrayed by Matt Haller. The small-town Ohio household belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Stanly, played by Frank Miller and Tasha Rogier. One day Mr. Whiteside fell on their front porch and became bedridden with a broken hip, and landed an extended stay in the Stanly's household.

Mr. Whiteside's occupation was a radio orator. While at the Stanly's he was visited by many of his high class friends. The first we meet is Lorain Sheldon, played by Sara Sprinkle. Miss Sheldon's head was larger than Sherry's. Yet by the end of the play she and her head were temporarily shut up in a coffin. Beverly Carlton, another one of Sherry's excentric friends played by Eric Brown gave Sherry a Christmas visit. Only to tell of his exploits as a world renown playwright and actor, Banjo, played by Andy Marock, another of Sherry's interesting friends, gave Sherry a brazier that was once worn by Hattie Lamar. Banjo was quite attracted to Miss Preen, Mr. Whiteside's nurse played by Zeenit Dowlut. Miss Preen made it clear that the feelings were not mutual.

Although Mr. Whiteside was said to have invented Christmas, however, he was not very "Merry" this year. He tried to break up the budding romance between his secretary Maggie Cutler, portrayed by Julie Christmas and Bert Jefferson played by David Hebeisen. Though many others contributed to the success of the production, the plot was briefly restated to refresh your memory or to let you know what you have missed. Each year 20 to 30 students come together to produce the play as practically strangers and in the manner of 2-3 months these strangers become a family. "Maggie" would just like to say that she has loved all of her families.

Eric Brown displays superbly his role as Beverly Carlton.

Pamela Christmas performs her Original Oratory, entitled "The Littlest Victims".

The speech teams success was twofold for the 1987-88 season. First the team grew from a mere 6 members last year to 13 members this year. Second five of our members, Pamela Christmas, Sarah Freeman, Matthew Haller, Sara Sprinkle, and David Hebeisen made it to The Regional Competition. The Speech Team also had a new Speech Coach this year. Her name is Ms. Fullenkamp, but her friends just call her "Heidikamp". The Speech Team gives the outgoing students a chance to develop their public speaking poise and the shy students a chance to break out of their shells. Even after leaving for a Speech meet at 4:00 a.m. and coming home with not a single ribbon no one returns home sad. Some may say this is from the high doses of sugar we consume, but being a member of the speech team is just plain fun.

STUDENTS HAMMER IN COMPETITIONS

What is Academic Competition? Well, it is when students from our school compete with students from other schools in certain areas of interest. (academically instead of athletically) Juniors and Seniors from the Tell City team went to the Academic Decathlon that was held in Jasper. All members attended a Spell Bowl in Coyordon and an Academic Super Bowl in Jasper, from there the Fine Arts Team went on to State. Members of the Fine Arts Team were Sarah Freeman, Brenda Lampkins and Darrel Goffinet. Due to a conflict with the band, Sara Freeman elected to represent the team by herself. There she placed fourth in the State Finals. Congratulations Sarah!!

Beside spending time competing, these students also find time to be participate in other activities. Above: Pam Flannagan plays the flute and to the left Shannon McCallister portrays her role as the cook in the play that the drama club presented in the spring.

FRENCH CLUB HAMMERS TO "FRÈRE JACQUES"

The 1987-88 French Club consisted of seventy-two students, who were sponsored by Mrs. Mary Ann Horn. The club selected Lahna Seamon as President, Ami Wicker as Vice President, Sara Alvey as Secretary, and Krista Blunk as Treasurer. During the meetings, skits were performed, balloon games were played, and old French folk songs were sung. The annual Christmas party was celebrated with the Spanish Club, who provided the main dish varying from nachos to tacos. The French Club provided the deserts. The purpose of the French Club is to educate the students by exposing them to old and new French cultures.

Row Six: Tina Jones, Connie Goffinet, Mandy Embry.

SPANISH CLUB HAMMERS TO HALLOWEEN

This year's Spanish Club consisted of fifty or more students, sponsored by Mr. Jeanne Appleton. They held two parties this year one for Halloween and one for Christmas. At the Halloween party the members smashed a pinata and played Spanish games, and many other games too. They also participated in their favorite past time—eating. The Spanish Club joined with the French Club to celebrate Christmas. Spanish foods were served and many games were played. The members of the Spanish Club sold posters to pay for a trip they are planning to take to Kings Island May 22, 1988.

The Student Council of the 1987-1988 school year did many things to make this school year the best ever. Some of the special things this council did included the purchasing of the computer sign board in the cafeteria with the receipts from the 1987 Lip Sync Contest. They also designed and sold lapel pins in order to purchase new silk plants for the cafeteria. As usual the Student Council sponsored many of the dances and activities held for the student this past year. They also ordered a large floor mat for the entrance to the school. This council has achieved many of their goals for the year and are sure to achieve many more in the years to come.

Mr. Roos monitors the National Honor Society Mock Election as Ginger Burnette, Jason Cronin and Lahna Seamon vote.

Being accepted into NHS depends on four high standards: Character, Leadership, Service and Scholarship. Character is determined by teachers. Leadership and Service is determined by a survey filled out by the student. Scholarship is met by a 3.3 GPA. This year the National Honor Society sponsored a Mock Election on November 4, 1987. NHS members prepared for the election, ran the election, counted the votes and posted the winners. All high school students and faculty were welcome to participate. The NHS also sponsored a Blood Drive at the Bryan Taylor Sports Arena on March 3, 1988. The NHS members were responsible for getting donors signed up. They also welcomed the general public to donate. Sixty-nine people donated, forty-nine of which were students.

MARKSMEN HAMMER UP TO SEMI-STATE

The 1987 Marksmen football team ended the season with an 8-5 record. The Marksmen were Sectional and Regional champs for the second consecutive year. The season came to a halt with the hard-fought heart-breaking loss to Ritter at Semi-State.

The hi-light of the year was beating the number one ranked team during the Regional games for the second year in a row. The most valuable player and most outstanding defensive player was Nick Goffinet. Chris Ballis was voted outstanding offensive lineman.

Outstanding offensive players were Kane King and Todd Kincaid. When Coach Spencer was asked how he felt about his ball club, he stated "The kids constantly played well, worked hard, and never gave up."

RESERVES TACKLE, BLOCK, AND PUNT

Chad Buckman and Steve Seibert scored the most points for the season. Chad said Jasper was one of the best games he had ever ever played. Coach Whitaker said he was very pleased with the team this year. He is quoted as saying "I have no complaints, we had an excellent year."

Tell City's Reserve Football Team had an excellent season for the Fall of 1987. They had four wins and one loss. Their best game of the season was when Tell City Marksmen stomped the Jasper Wildcats.

CHEERLEADERS . . . SEE HOW THEY STACK!

The Tell City Cheerleaders attended a camp this summer at Vincennes University. They were awarded four superior ribbons and one excellent ribbon for their daily performance. They also brought home a spirit stick for the second consecutive year. The Marksmen competed against many squads but still finished among the top ten. They learned many things that helped them prepare for the pep rallies and other spirit raising activities during the upcoming school year.

The Cheerleaders used many different tactics to raise the spirit level at Tell City High School. Some of them were: dress up days, pep sessions, and hall decorating contests. The Cheerleaders decorated the town for sectionals by hanging streamers at Legion Field, the High School, and along Highway 37. They raised spirit among people outside the school by painting the windows of businesses and hanging signs. The Cheerleaders have worked hard this year and we appreciate it.

LADY MARKSMEN SERVE A FEW

The Marksmen Varsity Volleyball team ended the season with a record of 5-14. Coach Patterson exclaimed, "The sectional game was their best performance all season for the Lady Marksmen". They advanced to the final game of the sectional by defeating Crawford County who had beaten them previously. The team lost to Perry Central in the finals in a thrilling match (15-2, 12-15, 6-15). The players receiving awards were: Paige Pride for best server, Angie Hughes for best spiker, Melissa Hedinger for best setter, and Krista Blunk for best defensive player.

The Tell City boy's Tennis Team ended with an 11-5 record. The team set three major goals this season. The first was to have a winning season. The second goal was to finish in the top half of the Big 8 conference. The third goal was to win Sectional.

The Tennis Team met their first two goals but the team was beat 4-1, in the Semi-Finals of the Sectional by Loogootee. Coach Alvey said that the most improved player was a hard choice but he felt Jason Mulzer deserved it most. Jason improved his record from 5-13 last year to 16-3 this year. Taking everything into consideration it was a great year.

AQUA MARKSMEN MAKE A SPLASH

The Tell City Girls Swimmers went undefeated this year in their dual meets. They also won the Big 8 Conference and the Sectional. Seven girls went to State this year. These included Seniors: Sherri Luecke, and Merrie Noble; Juniors: Michelle Everard, Courtney Busse, and Emily Dreyling; Sophomore: Jennifer Land and Freshman: Beth Carlson. They placed 17th overall in State. Coach Page feels that both their most difficult and most memorable meet was against Jasper. They went into the season with a lot of hopes and expectations. The girls met most of these expectations with an outstanding season.

The Boy's Swim Team started and ended this season without any Seniors, but that didn't keep them from having a pretty good season. Eric Kleaving, a Junior, advanced to state in the 500 Free Style. Mr. Page, the coach, said the team should have a strong season next year. The most improved swimmer was Ed Walsh. They finished this season with a 9-3 dual meet record, fourth in Sectional and third in Conference.

VARSITY PLAYERS HAMMER FOR VICTORY

Although the Varsity Basketball team didn't finish off the season well at the end, they had a great start. The leading players of the 1987-88 Varsity Team included Mark Finley, Chris Alvey, and Kevin Malone. The outcome of the games usually depended on the last few seconds of the game. For instance, at the Heritage Hills-Tell City game, Chris Alvey threw the ball from the end of the court and made a three point shot in the last six seconds of the game. They finished the season with eight wins and seventeen losses.

Kevin Malone gets ready to shoot a foul shot for the Marksmen.

As the score shows, the Marksmen team is in the lead 48 to 34.

J.V. HAMMERS ON, KEEPING THEIR SPIRITS HIGH

The Junior Varsity Boy's Basketball team finished their season with 7 wins and 13 losses. The J.V. team got off to a fast start but finished the season disappointingly, losing its last 9 games. This was partly due to a very tough February schedule and a loss to their top scorer, Andy Schroeder, to the Varsity Team. Besides Schroeder, the top scorer was Chad Hubert, and the leading rebounders were Bear Hubert and John Hoch. The best game of the year was a 49-34 victory over South Spencer in which they played very well both offensively and defensively. Other big wins were against Perry Central, a one-point win over Southridge, and an overtime victory against Heritage Hills. Mr. Bratton, coach of the team, said overall this was a very fun group to him, "though inexperienced, the players worked hard to improve and were competitive even though the record was not impressive. The January and February schedules were overwhelming and it is a credit to the players that they kept their spirits high.

FROSH LEARN TO HAMMER ON THE COURT

The Freshmen Basketball players are preparing for the Varsity Team. They had a great season this year with their leading players: Steve Sprinkle and Tom Quick. The season ended with a record of 6-16. Members of this team experienced a feeling unknown to non-basketball players. What is the sensation received from dribbling a basketball, dodging other players and trying to get that same ball in the hoop? What kind of thrill do you get from making two points? Yearbook reporters are ignorant to these answers but we're sure that a B-ball player would be happy to explain.

LADY MARKSMAN HAVE WINNING SEASON

The Tell City High School Varsity Girl's Basketball team finished the season with 9 wins and 8 losses. This was their most successful season in several years, says Coach Whitaker. Their conference record was 5 wins and 2 losses. This was the best in the team's history of the Big 8 Conference. The team had various starters during the year due to injuries. The most memorable moment and the best game played for the team was with the Jasper game, since it had given them second place, and at that time, Jasper was ranked 17th in the State.

The J.V. Girl's Basketball team had good seasons as well. Coach Thomas said their most memorable and best game played was the game against Boonville because the J.V. girls had never won a game against Boonville before. Coach Thomas also said that the girls were physically and mentally ready to win that game. Coach Thomas expects high expectations of a winning season next year for the girls.

GROPPLEERS

If you're ever driving down the street in mid-December and you see someone running in seven or eight layers of clothing, its probably a wrestler trying to make weight. Wrestling is a difficult sport, and very demanding, yet it is often overlooked. The wrestling season is very short, so the wrestlers must condition during the off-season. A wrestling match can last up to six minutes (three; two minute periods); therefore, every second is action-packed and full of excitement. An average season for a wrestler is about 26 matches packed into ten weeks of competition.

This years team finished with a record of four wins and nine losses, and placed fourth in the sectional. This years wrestlers with the best records were Jeff Hagedorn with a record of twenty wins and six losses; Dusty Marchand with twenty wins, six losses, and two ties; and Scott Schank with fourteen wins and seven losses. This was a rebuilding year for Tell City Wrestling. Two-thirds of this years team were under classman. Out of Tell City's fifteen wrestlers, there were five freshman, five sophomores, three juniors, and two seniors (Dusty Marchand and Scott Schank). Good job gropplers on a job well done.

"ONE, TWO, THREE YOU'RE OUT"

"Take me out to the ball game—take me out to the park—buy me some peanuts and cracker jacks—I don't care if I ever get back . . ." That is what the fans of the Marksmen were singing as the team evenly split their record with 13 wins and 13 losses. Leading the team with their batting averages was Kevin Barket, Steve Sibert, Danny Hosler and Greg Kincaid. The team loses six Seniors this year but the outlook still looks good for next year.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

The Reserve Baseball Team is 8 and 2 as of the end of the year. The team went into the tournament with a 6 and 2 record, and came out with the first title since 1979. In the first game of the tournament, the Reserve beat Heritage Hills 16 to 3. The Reserve had five home runs in that game. (Scott Brown—2, Danny Carter—1, Eric Kincaid—1, and Andy Schroeder—1). In the second and championship game, the Reserve beat Jasper 4 to 2.

The Marksman had good pitching all season long from these players: Mark Hagedorn, Andy Schroeder, Matt Morton, and Jason Rowe. Brian Rhodes also did an excellent job of bringing together the pitching squad at the catcher's spot. Danny Carter was the leading hitter with a .649 average.

"LOVE" HAMMERS "ALL"

The unity of the Girls Tennis Team could be felt while you watched their matches. The girls all cheered for each other even during their own matches. There was a lot of team spirit and the team was thought more of like a family than a team. Unfortunately that did not ease the pain of running the "stairs". Sara Allvey quotes that "Our toughest team was North East Dubois." Most Valuable Player of the season was Krista Blunk and Most Improved Player was Tonya Coomer. All and all the season was quite successful and the returning players are looking forward to next Spring.

GOLFERS HAMMER ON THE GREENERY

For the first time in a long time the golf team was Co-ed. Five girls were members of this year's team. The team placed second in Sectional out of twelve teams. John Stiles placed third and John Hoch placed fourth. The team has lost only two Seniors and is looking forward to an outstanding season next year.

GIRL'S HAMMER AROUND THE TRACK

For the first time the 1988 Girls Track Team won Sectional. Twenty teams competed in the meet in which Tell City came out ahead with 69 points. The team ran together to pull out a second place victory in the Big Eight Conference. The Lady Marksmen finished their outstanding season with 9 wins and 7 losses.

Three new outdoor records were set this year by the following members: Lisa Freeman threw the discus a record setting 135 feet 7 inches. Ami

Coach Busse looks at his stats.

Wicker ran the 300 meter low hurdles in an outstanding time of 48.01 seconds. Finally, Jennifer Land ran the 3200 meter run in a record setting 13 minute 12.8 seconds. Lisa Freeman also sent ahead to represent Tell City in the State Finals in the discus event. Lisa also received the most valuable field performer of 1988 and Ami Wicker received the most valuable runner of 1988.

The Senior Class of 1988 is made up of 161 students. This class is the most nonconformist class to pass through Tell City High School in several years. Instead of everyone conforming to the "new fads" the class is very individualistic. Our class is also a "close" class. The Senior class officers said that the class was like one big family.

The Class of '88" went on a spending trend to capture their memories through the past years. One of the most popular items bought was the Senior Year Memory Book. Other Memory items that were bought, were Senior Keys, mugs, and extra tassels, but the one thing we all looked forward to was buying invitations. As graduation comes closer, the Seniors tend to be leaning on all those great memories, and they try to get as close as they can with the few months they have left.

All the underclassmen look forward to ruling their school and finally taking over senior hall. The class of 1988 was no exception. On the first day of school seniors demonstrated their spirit and decorated "their" hall. The thing seniors looked forward to most on the first day was the scared expression on the "greenies" faces as they took their first journey through the dreaded senior hall. Now every morning the hall is used to socialize and catch up on the latest gossip in the senior class. All the underclassmen await anxiously to see if they can carry on the tradition as well as the class of 1988 has.

LIFE IS MENT TO BE LIVED

Leading the Graduates into the Ceremony, Brent Lyons and Cindy Adkins.

Graduation . . . is it a sad or happy time??? Both, really, of course you will never have to walk the halls of the High School again. You will have no more homework from those "thoughtless" teachers, but we will also never be together as a class again. It has both its good and bad points. On May 27th, 1988, at Legion Field at 7:30 p.m. the Tell City Class of 1988 held its Commencement Exercises. The 133 graduates of Tell City High School are off to the Military or to College and some will stay around here and try out the family life. But wherever the Class of 1988 ends up, they will take with them the memories of the time spent in the hallowed halls of their Alma Matter—Tell City High School.

Sophomore year is the year students begin to be identified as a Tell City Marksmen. Their freshmen year they were measured for their class jackets and they received them this year. Sophomores also take driver's education. After completing the course and a month after their birthday they receive their licenses. The last thing sophomores do is order their class rings. After they have all these things they are true Marksmen.

Freshmen hammered well their first six weeks at the high school. A survey given to them revealed that they were a little intimidated at first by the size of the high school. But they soon discovered that it was possible to "walk" from science class, in the new building to their lockers, and arrive, on time, in study hall on the top floor of the old building, all in five minutes.

It seems that the reputation of some of the high school's teachers preceded them through rumors, started by anonymous persons. Who would have guessed that these infamous teachers would turn out to be Mr. Carver, Mr. Hintzen, Mr. Kramer, and Mr. Richardson.

Most of the students who admitted being afraid of these teachers now say that the rumors had no truth in them at all . . . except for Mr. Carver's test.

Freshmen are enjoying the new opportunities the high school offers, such as: chance to meet new friends, dance squad, spirit days, better cafeteria food, and open campus.

Freshmen say it's a big change from the Junior High. Also different from the Junior high are: longer classes, shorter lunch, and more homework. The freshmen are not enjoying these differences as much.

Every year of high school is a very important part to your future. Here at Tell City High School it is the job of the administration and faculty members to see that you receive the knowledge you need to succeed. During the 1987-1988 school year, the faculty, staff, and administration had many adjustments to attend to.

The number one problem of the winter resulted in the state snow days. In the spring, faculty as well as students, contended with another state mandate—the ISTEP. ISTEP stands for Indiana Statewide Testing for Educational Progress. The test, taken by Freshmen and Juniors, measured their academic ability.
