OUR JANITORS: These men deserve a lot more credit than they ever get for keeping our building so clean. They are Ferd Kleeman, Archie Arnold, Albert Fernow, and Charles Davis.

OUR COOKS: These ladies prepare and serve some 300 meals per day at the high school, plus many hundred more for the grade schools. They are Mrs. Christine Masters, Mrs. Anna Scheiber, Mrs. Marie Niemczyk, Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, and Mrs. Rosa Fendel.

THE BUSIEST--AND BEST--TIME OF THE WHOLE DAY!!

THAT CHOW LINE SEEMS A MILE LONG---SOMETIMES!!

ALL WORK AND NO PLAY MAKES JACK A DULL BOY

The G.A.A. Club goes caroling--and enjoys a gift exchange. Don't you wish you were a G.A.A. member?

Parties are fun--the noisier and the creepier they are, the better we like 'em. But--wouldn't it be awful if we had to use that much energy getting our chemistry or bookkeeping?

OUR PARTIES TAKE US A LONG WAY FROM OUR CLASSROOM ROUTINE!!

TWIRLERS:

They are from left to right: Marsha Kruse, Barbara Ames, Phyllis Kepley, and Jean Goffinet.

FLAG THROWERS:

Not all field trips lend themselves to a picture!! Here, our camera catches Mr. Kessler and his biology class on a trip to Fenn's woods.

Our thanks, also, to Mr. Joe Bruggenschmidt.

Mr. Joe Bruggenschmidt, consulting forester, explains the importance of healthy growing conditions---- even need of removing mature trees.

WE FIND THAT FENN'S WOODS IS AN EXCELLENT PLACE TO STUDY NATURE!

Mr. Kessler shows the result of an old burn on a still-living tree.

MICROSCOPES, RATS, BUGS AND FLOWERS ARE FUN---IN BIOLOGY.

"Who's afraid of Matilda, anyway?"

"This is the way YOU look, inside, explains Mr. Varner.

In art, we learn all sorts of things--how to letter, how to draw, how to make all sorts of ceramic creations, how to bake and glaze them. There may even be a world-famous artist HERE!

B-BASKETBALL TEAM:

We're good! We even got on TV once!

Our eleventh annual Career Day program seemed to be enjoyed by all-- even our guest speakers. Even if most of the seed sown during this event falls on fallow ground, perhaps the balance will take seed and produce a bountiful harvest. We hope so!

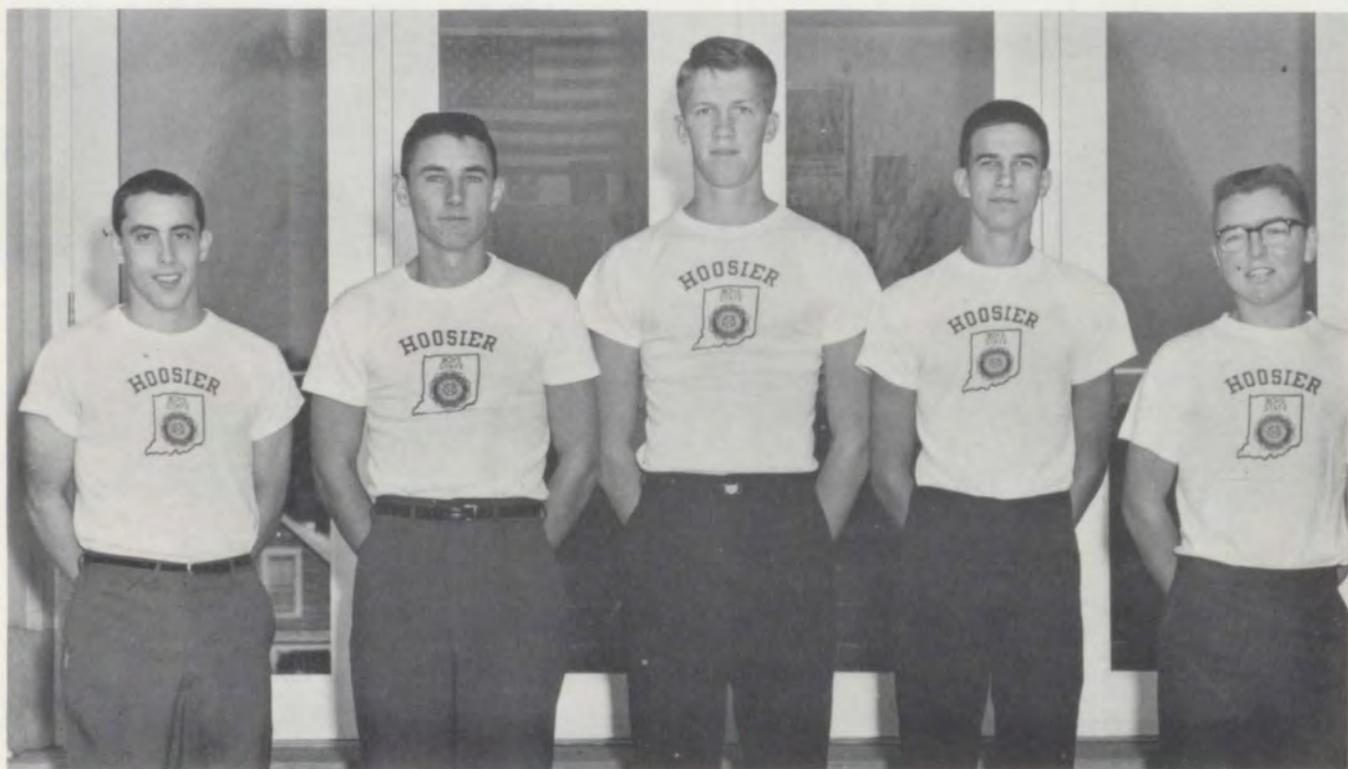

LETTERMEN'S CLUB:

They are from left to right: FIRST ROW: Bob Pannett, Jim Hartz, Chuck Brumfield, Larry Polster, Gary Briggeman, and Coach Talley. SECOND ROW: Joe Gengelbach, Bob Day, Jim Sprinkle, Jim Little, Lynn Blinzinger, and Larry Reynolds. THIRD ROW: Bob Baysinger, David Hagedorn, and Art Hodde, Gary Baur, Jim Poehlein, Jerry Kuntz, and Otis Carter. FOURTH ROW : Mike Waterbury, Gene Bender, Alan Kessler, Jim Kleeman, and Richard Smith.

GIRL'S STATERS: Carol Baur, Sarah Yaggi, Carla Waitman, Jean Goffinet and Micky Walk.

BOY'S STATERS: Don Blinzinger, Gary Drury, David Clark, David Hagedorn, and Bob Baysinger.

The camera caught part of semester I journalism class dissecting a newspaper. We're not sure whether they're looking for advance stories, follow-up stories, features, columns, editorials, or what-have-you---but they're looking.

HI DAILY MAGAZINE SALESMEN: Larry Polster, Gene Bender, Gib Kleaving, Janice Huff, Jane Eberle's pet, and Jane herself.

HIGH MAGAZINE SALESMEN: Janice Huff, Marilyn Gerlach, Jackie Foertsch, Brent Cardinal, Joe Kress, and Steve Simpson.

These are the girls who help keep the library in working order. They are from left to right: Susan Fischer, Patricia Spicer, Mary Le Roy, Juanita Waterbury, Diane Buntin, Donna Scott, Imogene Bowman, Donna Bowman, Mary Goffinet, with Mr. Blazey, librarian.

Remember--when the Annual Staff posted all these pictures in library display window--and they just about stopped all traffic? Each of these pictures, and many more, are in your 1964 Annual!

Some of us ride as much as 50 to 60 miles per day in our yellow taxi-- but we prefer to ride in the new driver's training car with Mr. Curry!

ANNUAL EDITOR-----Nina Fay Lemaire

MARKSMAN EDITOR-----Judy Gayer

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Ricki Hobbs, Peggy Kroessman, Ruth Clemens. (Top row)
Sylvia Purviance and Vicki Hubbs.

FRESHMAN CHEERLEADERS: Brenda Lautner, Susan Foertsch, Sheila Reid, and Angela Clemens.

The State Police check our yellow taxis each year--
but that doesn't make 'em any less crowded!

Ever see so many characters at one time and place?
Our halls are often more crowded than this!!

Charles Neyenhaus and Joe Goffinet

Ralph Neyenhaus (right) helps out whenever the going gets rough.

SHIRT TAIL DAY:

No wonder our school has regulations about school attire!

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL: Row 1-Vincent Stier, Tim Gibson, Bill Sandage, Harold Goffinet, Mike Kessans, Eugene Marcilliat, and Bruce Demboski. Row 2--Ronnie LaGrange, Mike Aldridge, Bill Owen, Larry Walters, Cletus Fortwendel, Dan LaGrange, Steve Peckinpugh, and Jerry Gray. Row 3--Joe Malone, John Frizzell, Larry Malone, Harold Franzman, Bob Fella, and Paul Strahl. Row 4--Ronnie Harding, Terry Cotton, John Austin Dave LaGrange, Joe Rust, and Leland Cail. Row 5--Norvin Esarey, Ronnie Hauser, and Craig Blackford.

Red vests, noise, and pom-poms--lots of fun!

This is worlds more fun than preparing our home work!
