'47 Class History

On September 7, 1943, fifty-four girls and boys enrolled for their first year at Cannelton High School. This group of boys and girls set down to the task of getting acquainted and organizing themselves into a class.

The class officers were as follows: President, Dorothy Dunn; Vice-President, Joseph Elder; Secretary, Bobby Mogan; Treasurer, Gertrude Shadwick; Historian, Doris Daum.

Our freshman sponsors were Mr. Dauby and Mr. Little.

At the end of the freshmen year, three of our class received awards as follows: Doris Daum, activities award; Bob Jones, athletic award; Maytha Schurtter, scholastic award.

In spite of the trials we endured as "green freshies" it was a very enjoyable year and we looked forward eagerly to the next year.

By the time the Sophomore year rolled around, the number of members in our class had decreased to thirty-nine.

Mr. Little again served as sponsor along with Miss Gratzner.

Our officers were Carolyn Birchler, President; Bob Jones, Vice-President; Joe Elder, Secretary; Charles May, Treasurer; Bill Conner, Historian.

We had now completed half of our high school work.

Our class started the year as "jolly juniors" with thirty-nine members, but during the year the following members withdrew: Jerry Allen, Jorene Alvey, Alfred Powers, Marjorie Reed, and Hargis Thomas. Melba Maxey entered our class from Huntingburg, Indiana.

Junior class officers were Bob Jones, President; Jean Ramsey, Vice-President; Bill Conner, Secretary; Ann Sterett, Treasurer; Ruth Hay, Reporter; Maytha Schurtter, Historian.

Our sponsors for the year were Miss Gratzner and Mr. Park.

This year our class was host to the senior class at the Junior-Senior Banquet held in the basement of the Methodist Church on May 19, 1946. Mrs. Jean Campbell's Accordion Band provided the entertainment.

The class had now advanced to the ranks of "dignified seniors."

Officers for our senior year were Doris Daum, President; Bob Jones, Vice-President; Carolyn Birchler, Secretary and Treasurer; Maytha Schurtter, Historian.

Seniors sponsors were Miss Byerley and Mr. Zollman. Our class colors were blue and white, our flowers were sweetpeas, and our motto was "Ambition has no rest."

On February 5, 1947 our class, along with Mr. Beavers and Miss Schnell, chartered a bus and went to Indianapolis. We visited the State House and the two houses of the General Assembly which were in session. This was the first time in the history of C. H. S. that a class took such a trip.

Thirteen members of our class—Bill Conner, Doris Daum, Ann Sterett, Bobby Huff, Jean Ramsey, Dorothy Dunn, Carolyn Birchler, Eloise Burton, Mary Ahrens, Thelma Kendall, Betty Mogan, Albert Parks, and Maytha Schurtter, were in the Journalism Class and had charge of publishing the school paper, the Hi-Life.

The Notlennac Staff consisted of Dorothy Dunn, Doris Daum, Bob Jones, Albert Parks, Ann Sterett, Carolyn Birchler, Maytha Schurtter, Bobby Huff, Kenneth Ramsey, and Bill Conner. These students worked under the direction of Miss Byerley to prepare the Notlennac, the year book of C. H. S.

This is the history of the Class of 1947 of Cannelton High School.

'47 Class Will

- I, Mary Frances Adams, will my Missionary ambitions to Nellie May. Read the "Three Bears," Nellie, it will really help you in your future work.
- I, Mary Ahrens, will my sweet disposition to Phyllis May. That "ole" sweet talk will get you some place, Phyllis.
- I, Hargis Anderson, will my "sky blue pink hair" and my freckles to "Bucky" Mattingly. Treat them dearly, "Bucky," cause they are precious to me.
- I, Carolyn Birchler, will my position as first chair clarinet to Sydney Mogan. Carry on, Sid!
- I, Ivan Bryant, will my bashfulness to Joe Harlen. It'll be hard for you to change, Joe, but try hard, won't you?
- I, Eloise Burton, will my slow, southern drawl to Betty Jo Allen. After all, Betty Jo, what's the use to hurry in this day and age?
- I, Bill Conner, will my journalistic attributes to Ben Polk. May he use them as well as I did. If you don't know what attribute means, look it up in Dear Ole Webster.
- I, Doris Daum, will my laugh to Marian Franzman, if she wants it. They'll tell you it's a horse laugh, Marian, but don't let them kid you.
- I, Dorothy Dunn, will my D. A. R. award to Lois Sue Hay. I found it on the corner of 5th Avenue and I am dropping it at the corner of 6th Avenue. You'll find it there.
- I, Ida Mae Freeman, will my seat in civics class to Jewell Burton. There's an old tradition that whoever sits in that seat makes all A's so keep up the good work, Jewell.
- I, C. W. Gottman, will my burr-head to Emory Yaggi. Take care of it, Yaggi, cause you won't find many like it around here.
- I, John D. Groves, will my atomic power with women to Bubby Powers. It's a deep secret, Bubby, so seek me under the apple tree at 6 o'clock on the second Monday of next week.
- I, Rosemary Gunn, do hereby bequeath my Chinese jacket to Wilma Zellers. Remember, with it goes a good man's heart.
- I, Charlie Hall, will my physique, developed by being a good boy in school to Pee Wee Lauer. So just keep on being the way you are, Pee Wee.
- I, Ruthie Hay, will my red hair to Toots Wheeler. Please, Toots, when you graduate, will it to someone, so it will keep running around in the halls of C. H. S. forever.
- I, Marguerite Heck, will my six solids to Jimmy Johnson, I hope you can take care of them, Jimmy, I sure couldn't.
- I, Bobby Huff, will my ability to understand Bookkeeping to Allen Forsaith. Bless you, Allen.
- I, Bobby Jones, will my place as captain of the Basketball team to Billy Estes, just give them an all day sucker each day and they will be satisfied.
- I, Elinor Keiser, will my shortness to Edith Morris.
- I, Thelma Kendall will my muscular ability to Rita Keiser, I borrowed it from Charlie, so don't let him know that you have it.
- I, Charlie May, will my popularity as a football star to Georgie Downs.
- I, Melba Maxey, will my soft voice to Joanie Robinson, I got a new one in Public Speaking!
- I, Bobby Mogan, will all my articles that I have written for the Hi-Life to Howard Traphagen. You can put everyone of them in your billfold, Howard.
- I, Betty Northenor, will my giggles to Janet Forsaith, with them goes my habit of being absent.
- I, Albert Parks, will my mustache to Eddie Paulin. It took me all four years of high school to grow it so you ought to be proud of it!
- I, Charlie Paulin, will my good looks to all the forthcoming freshmen, may they have as much luck with them as I did. There isn't any more conceit in Charlie's family; he took it all.
- I, Wyvonne Posey, will my way with those Kentucky fellows to Katherine Morris.
- I, Jean Ramsey, will a package of chewing gum to Mrs. Vaughn.
- I, Kenneth Ramsey, known as the boy that is always late, will that privilege and my large stock of tried and proved alibis to Billy Badger.
- I, Maytha Schurtter, will my scholastic ability to Norma Jean Clemens. One of the hardest books to understand is the dictionary, I hope it isn't as hard for you as it was for me.
- I, Ann Sterett, will my curly hair to Wilma Bush. There is one curl that is always coming out of place, Wilma, you will have to try and train that one.
- I, Ida Mae Sweeney, will my basketball crown to Franie Allen. Please take care of it, Franie, cause I imagine that they will use it for many years to come.
- I, Joe VanConia, known widely for being the eighth wonder of the world., will my quiet manner to Bruce Connor.
- I, Derrell Zellers, will my clash of personality with Miss Byerley to Billy Jo Minto.
- I, Nina Muriel Zellers, will my teeth and big box of Oxydol to Mary Lou Mattingly. Wheeeeeee! That Oxydol Sparkle.

Prophecy

Statistical survey of C. H. S. graduates of 1947 compiled by TROTTER POLE, INC., in year 1957.

CHARLIE MAY—Has purchased all rights to the "Charles Atlas" he-man courses and changed the name to "Atlas May's." Women faint and desert their husbands when they see pictures of "Cocky" on muscle-building advertisements.

WYVONNE POSEY—Author of book entitled "How To Get Along With People." Living life of luxury after selling a thousand copies to Elinor Jean Keiser, wife of the noted Jesse Glenn, after their recent separation. After reading Wyvonne's book, Elinor is convinced she has been in the wrong and is ready to go back to Jesse.

CHARLIE PAULIN—Succeeded "Buddy" Young as America's fastest football player. This isn't the Charlie Paulin that we knew back in '47.

IDA MAE SWEENEY—After completing a course in Evansville College, she returned to Cannelton to settle down on St. Louis Avenue. Need we say more?

BOB JONES—Has retired after winning world wide fame by scoring 172 points against Notre Dame in a Notre Dame—Podunk Basketball game. Bob entered Podunk University after graduating from C. H. S.

IDA MAE FREEMAN—Spending her honeymoon in Mexico after her marriage to Clifford Mosby.

MAYTHA SCHURTTER—Running for president on independent ticket. Proposes the adoption of an amendment giving women control of the government and changing the bill of rights to read "for women only."

ELOISE BURTON—Was mistaken for a runaway native girl that had fallen heir to the crown and sent by authorities to the Pugooto Islands where she reigns as queen.

KENNETH RAMSEY—After several years of study at Millstone Engineering University introduced to the public for the first time in history an atom powered rocket ship. Mr. Ramsey could not be reached to make a statement since he is on an extended journey to the moon.

ANN STERETT—Wife of the manager of the world's largest chain of hotels. Said to be worth several billion.

MARGUERITE HECK—Famous singer, starred in Ziegfeld Follies of 1957.

CAROLYN BIRCHLER—After touring the country in search of a girls' college situated conveniently close to a boys' school, she finally gave up and returned to Indiana. Discovering that "Rusty" had taken over "her man," she moved to the hills of Kentucky where she now resides.

BILL CONNER—Now mayor of our city. It is rumored that the general public will demand a new election next fall on the grounds that Bill squandered public funds for monuments dedicated to himself and his friends.

THELMA KENDALL—Basketball coach at Bosse High School in Evansville.

DERRELL ZELLERS AND C. W. GOTTMAN—Proprietors of the world's largest laundry. Centrally located with daily helicopter pickups, it serves the entire United States.

DORIS DAUM—Aeronautical instructor for "Daum Air Lines." She has instructed such celebrities as ex-ballet dancer Nina Zellers and play girl Mary Frances Adams.

BOBBY HUFF—Has taken Senator Claghorn's place on Fred Allen's Radio program. Kenny Delmar gladly surrendered his position when he heard Bobby's voice.

JOHN D. GROVES—Owner of Circle C. Ranch in Southern Texas. John almost lost his life recently when hired help mistook him for one of the West's badmen and tried to ambush him. He was saved however when Ivan Bryant, his faithful friend and foreman of the ranch, intervened and introduced him to the boys as their boss and not the "Terror Kid."

JEAN RAMSEY—Married to her "ideal" man, the preacher's son. At present she is assisting her beloved in his missionary work in South Africa.

CHARLIE HALL—Is now President of the Zanol Products Company. He started out as district salesman and steadily ascended the ladder of success until he attained the high position that he now holds.

BETTY NORTHENOR AND BOBBY MOGAN—Operators of a modern beauty salon in Hollywood. Immediately after the opening of this shop Gene and Chris purchased a gas station in the same block . . . "And they lived happily ever after."

ROSEMARY GUNN—Attained world wide fame when quintuplets were born to her and Ralph Weatherholt.

ALBERT PARKS—Warden at Boys Reform School in Plainfield, Indiana. He worked his way up after being convicted of operating a radio transmitting station without a license.

DOROTHY DUNN—Secretary to an executive of a large New York concern. She locks her four little Arnolds in the closet in her office during work hours.

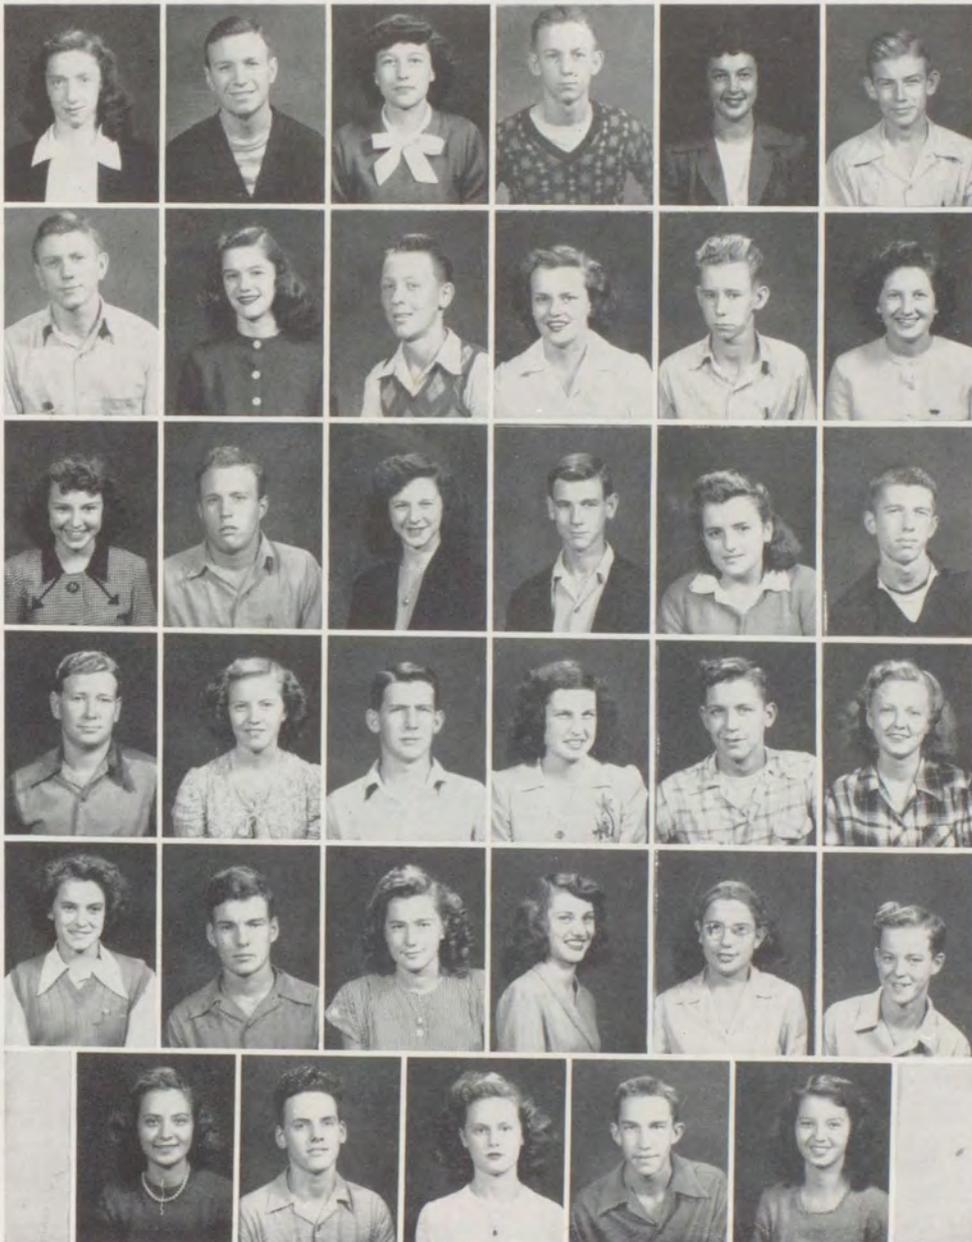

RUTHIE HAY—Star of the modern version of the show "Forever Amber."

JOE VAN CONIA—Now holds the positions of dog catcher, peace-officer, and street cleaner of Rome, Indiana.

MARY AHRENS AND MELBA MAXEY—Owners and operators of "Zippo Reducing School," of Needless, Nebraska.

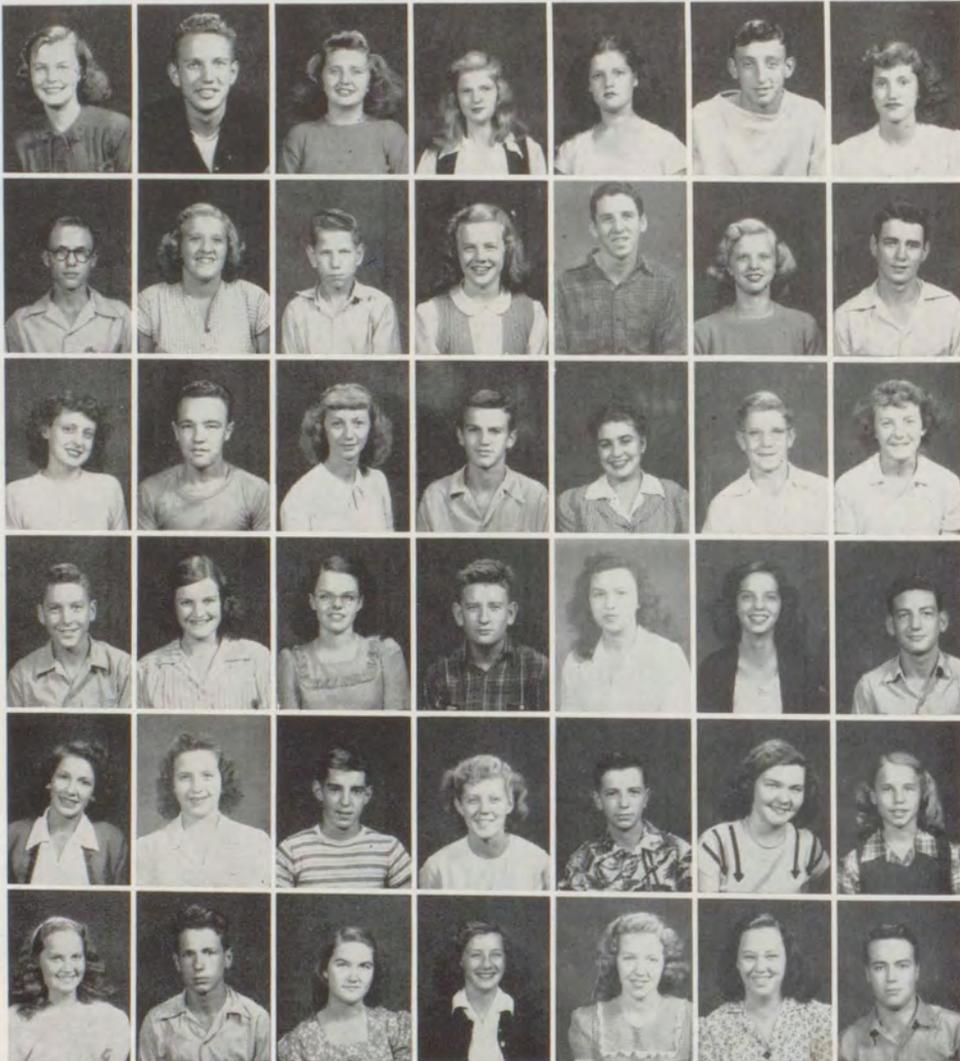

RED ANDERSON—Replaced Charlie McCarthy on Edgar Bergen show. Has been openly accused of training termites to exterminate the Irish lad.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Cannelton High School instituted its first Student Council this year. Each class chose two representatives by general election. The president was elected from the student body by the faculty. The Student Council was organized for the purpose of giving the student body a voice in the government of our school.

A constitution and by-laws were adopted. The Council sponsored a magazine sale's campaign. With the proceeds pictures for three classrooms were purchased. Student dances following home basketball games were promoted by the Student Council.

Mr. William A. Beavers, Principal, is faculty representative in this organization.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music department of Cannelton High School is directed by Mr. Victor Self. It includes a forty-seven piece high school band, a twenty-four voice girl's chorus, and a beginners band of twenty-five members made up chiefly of pupils of Myers Grade School.

Beginning this year the C. H. S. Band entered the Band and Orchestra Contests that had been discontinued during the war. The band has gained fame in its class as a constant winner in both District and State Contests. This year several of the band members entered the Solo and Ensemble Contest.

During the school year the band played at all athletic events and displayed intricate marching formations at the football games. Other events the band participated in were: parades for public events, high school plays, pep sessions, the Christmas program, and Spring Concert. The chorus took part in the Christmas program and sang at convocation programs.

STAR CRAZY

Star Crazy, a three-act comedy, was produced by students in C. H. S. who are interested in dramatics. Mrs. Mildred Vaughn, assisted by Miss Norma Schnell, directed this play.

Kneeling—Mary Nell Minto, Connie Miller.
Seated—Ronald Sheldon, Bobby Jones.
Standing—Joan Clemens, John Lee Conway, Betty Lou Wheeler, David Spencer, Doris Daum.

MYERS FALL FESTIVAL QUEEN

Each year on Hallowe'en Myers Grade School is host to a fall festival. A program is given by the students, a fish pond, refreshment stand and home made candy sales are operated. One of the highlights of the evening is a cake walk. This year an added feature was the selection of a queen to reign over this gala affair.

Mary Avis Irvin, Margaret Rees, Linda Irvin, Bernita Fugit, Queen, Georgia Cronin, Jane Swearingen, Ann Forsaith.

HI-LIFE STAFF

To be eligible for membership in the journalism class, one must be a senior; must pass a test of eligibility and must meet the general requirements of character and leadership. The journalism class publishes The Hi-Life, the school paper, which is a bi-weekly publication.

Mr. Zollman and Miss Byerley are the faculty sponsors. Bill Conner is the editor.
