THEN AND NOWNotlennac 2010

The End of an Era

It wasn't that long ago that we were starting elementary school, excited about our first day of learning and all the new friends we would meet. Though some have gone on to other schools, and some new faces have joined us, we have remained a family. Now time has come to an end for us all to be together. Oh, we say that we'll stay in touch, but who knows what the next 5, 10, 20 or 50 years will bring? So we find ourselves looking back, through laughter and tears, at time gone by. Please turn to pages 8 - 17 to look back with us.

As a Teacher

Mrs. Barnett works tirelessly to support Cannelton City Schools. The senior class chose to dedicate this yearbook to her because of her commitment to their education, her friendship, and her humor. Mrs. Barnett has always been a sounding board for them, as well as a true bulldog fan -- supporting the students in their academics, athletics, and a variety of other activities.

As a Leader

The faculty and staff concur with the seniors in their dedication. Janie Barnett is always ready to lend an ear, share a laugh, and offer advice. She's also very good, on most occasions, at dodging the camera
